SCHOOL STAFF IS COMPLETED FOR NEXT TERM

BOARD ELECTS MINNIE MCCARTHY AND LOIS GOODRICH.

Also Plans Action To Collect $2,480 in Delinquent Taxes For 1927 and 1928.

The faculty of the Canyon Public Schools was completed, with one exception, at a meeting of the school board last week.

Miss Minnie McCarthy of Canyon was elected to teach home economics in the high school, and Miss Lois Goodrich was elected as a teacher in the grades. Appointment of these teachers completes the school faculty for next year with the exception of a teacher to succeed Miss Evelyn Tanner, language teacher in the high school, who recently has resigned.

A taxation basis of $1 on each $100 valuation was retained for maintenance of the schools by the board at its last meeting. Valuation figures will remain unchanged, the board decided, except in a few cases where errors were made in the assessment.

In an effort to collect all delinquent taxes due the district, amounting to $2840 for 1928 and 1927, the board voted to advertise all delinquencies during June.

Delinquencies remaining from 1927 amounted to $419, and school district books show a total of $2421 in unpaid taxes for last year.

"Owing to the financial condition of the school," the board's statement said, "collection must be made on these amounts, and it is ordered that all delinquencies be advertised in the Canyon News for three weeks in June. It will be a material saving to take care of this matter before any additional cost accrues."

The complete faculty of the schools for next year is as follows:

I. B. Carruth, superintendent; T. H. McDonald, principal.

High school teachers re-elected were: Miss Stella Rusk, history; Miss Grace Clark, mathematics; Miss Sadie Anderson, languages; Miss Marion Cartwright, science; Miss Jewell Foster, history; Miss Katy McFarland, English.

Grade school teachers who were re-elected were: Mrs. C. E. Strain, Mrs. H. T. McDonald, Mrs. Guy Tabor, Miss Lillian Donnell, Miss Irene Crawford, Mrs. Hubert Hamill, Miss Sophia Short, Miss Agnes Elkhorn, Mrs. Stella Murrell, Miss Ruth Hanley, Miss Adaline Strain, and Mrs. Tate Fry.

Additional teachers named were: Mrs. T. W. Collins, primary work; Miss Lois Norton, intermediate work; Miss Rosalind Hammond, English in the high school; Miss Greta Minter, grades; Miss Margaret Dickenson, English; Miss Lorraine Luthmer, public speaking; Miss Ruth Russell, science; Miss Plottilla Hill, grades; Virgil Thomas, grades; Miss Erin Gamble, grades; Miss Gladys McClanahan, grades; A. A. Stockley, athletic coach.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Redfearn Held Sunday p. m.

Mrs. R. B. Redfearn, 68 years, died Saturday night at the family home on Fourth avenue, following a lingering illness. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev. Ed S. McKinney, pastor of the Christian church, of which denomination Mrs. Redfearn was a member.

Jessie Margaret VanSant was born August 4th, 1860, at Van Buren, Ark. She was married to R. B. Redfearn on December 16th, 1881, and moved with her family to Canyon in 1891 where the family were pioneer settlers. Mr. Redfearn being among the first merchants in this city.

Mrs. Redfearn is survived by her husband; one son, J. M. Redfearn, three grandsons, Jim Blair Redfearn of Childress, Billie Hugh and Dick of this city, and one great-grandson; one brother, I. L. VanSant of Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. W. R. Redfearn of Claypool, Ariz., and Mrs. Worth A. Jennings of Canyon.

During the thirty-six years in Canyon, Mrs. Redfearn has been surrounded by a large circle of friends who were deeply grieved to hear of her death Saturday night. She has been loyal to the community in which she lived, and to the church in which she worshipped. The many friends of the family extend heart felt sympathy in their great bereavement.

Miss Dolphia Carmack of Tulsa visited friends here this week.

Parties for Miss Dorothy Burrow Make Busy Week

Canyon society matrons and misses have been quite busy this week and last with the many festivities honoring Miss Dorothy Burrow, who is to be married June 1 to Robert A. Neblett. Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, Mrs. Travis Shaw and Mrs. Millard Word of Amarillo were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Sheffy at a shower honoring the bride-to-be.

Roses and larkspur were used as decorations in the rooms for the party. Miss Burrow was requested to go on a treasure hunt, and in this way was presented with many lovely gifts. After the treasure hunt each guest was invited to write her favorite recipe in a book which was given to the bride-to-be. Still later jokes and funny stories concerning past honeymoons were told.

Those present were, Miss Burrow, the honoree, Mrs. E. H. Ackley of Waxahachie, and Miss Elva McDonald, house guests, Mrs. C. R. Burrow, mother of the bride, and invited guests, Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, Mrs. D. A. Shirley, Mrs. J. S. Humphreys, Mrs. R. A. Terrill, Mrs. I. B. Carruth, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, Mrs. O. N. Gamble, Mrs. J. B. Gamble, Mrs. Hubert Hamill, Mrs. Ethel Gray Shaw, Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Mrs. Pat Whittington of Amarillo, Mrs. Tom Currie of Amarillo, Mrs. Jimmie Pyron of Amarillo, Mrs. George Ingham of Amarillo, Mrs. Dan F. Sanders, Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, and Misses Stella Rusk, Pauline Brigham, Cleo D. Holmes, Hazel Allen, Mary Stone and Clara Guthrie of Amarillo, and Mrs. Millard Word of Amarillo.

MRS. O. N. GAMBLE ENTERTAINS FOR MISS BURROW

It was to honor Miss Dorothy Burrow that Mrs. O. N. Gamble invited members of the Friday Afternoon Club and several guests to her home on last Tuesday afternoon.

Roses and larkspur were combined into artistic bouquets in the rooms in which the guests were entertained. Awards for the games of bridge went to Mrs. Travis Shaw for high score and to Mrs. W. C. Black for low score. The club presented Miss Burrow with a set of six gold-band plates. The pastel-shaded color scheme used in the decorations were carried out also in the delightful salad course.

Attending were: Miss Dorothy Burrow, honoree, Mrs. C. R. Burrow, mother of the bride-to-be, Miss Elva McDonald of Galveston, Mrs. E. H. Ackley of Waxahachie, Mrs. L. Angel, Mrs. Joe Gamble, Mrs. L. Angel, and Misses Hazel Allen, Cleo Holmes, Pauline Brigham, and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, the hostess.

MRS. D. A. SHIRLEY HONORS MISS BURROW WITH DINNER

A small but altogether delightful affair was the six o'clock dinner given by Mrs. D. A. Shirley at her home last Sunday evening as a courtesy to Miss Dorothy Burrow. A lovely bouquet of roses centered the table, and little bride place cards guided the guests to their places. Covers were laid for Miss Burrow, honoree, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow, Mrs. E. H. Ackley of Waxahachie, and Miss Elva McDonald of Galveston.

SECOND TRADES DAY EVENT IS FAIR SUCCESS

CROWD SMALLER BUT BUSINESS WAS GOOD.

Merchants and Consumers Favor Continuation of Monthly Event For Rest of Year.

Monday brought bright, sunny weather following the heavy rains of the past month, and Trades Day in Canyon did not bring the large crowd which came to Canyon for the April Trades Day.

However, most of the business houses of Canyon were well pleased with the results of the day, and desire to make Trades Day a regular monthly feature on the last Monday of each month.

Merchants realize that owing to the heavy rains farmers should be in the fields every possible minute now, and were therefore not disappointed at the small crowd here Monday.

Col. J. M. McCrerey of Wayside was here, but owing to the small number of things offered for the public sale decided that it would not pay to start the free public auction. He states that he is confident that the farmers will be too busy to attend an auction sale June, but suggests that the free auction feature be continued in July.

Business men of Canyon will likely meet in a few days to lay plans for the June Trades Day. While that time will be right in the middle of the wheat harvest, there are many merchants who wish to continue the monthly Trades Day for the benefit of those who are able to come, and to keep this monthly feature in the minds of the people.

The News distributed 2500 copies of last week's edition, and as a result added many new names to the subscription list. The News is doing everything possible to make the Trades Day monthly a great drawing card for the business houses of Canyon, and appreciates the co-operation of the business houses in getting in their copy early.

Citizens of this section are urged to watch for the further announcements regarding the Trades Day which will probably be held on June 24.

Summer School Outlook Very Promising According to Dean

Dean of Men Harris Cook states that the outlook for the summer session of the College is most promising. He has had more requests for rooms for boys than for any past summer session. The same situation is true for the girls, according to Dean of Women, Mrs. Geraldine Green.

The summer session opens next Wednesday, and it is expected that a large number of students will begin to arrive in the city by the end of this week.

Members of the College faculty who have made commencement addresses over the Plains this spring are highly pleased with the promise for students for both this summer and for the fall session.

UPHOLDS LAND BILL

Land owners in the Panhandle won the first court battle for the validation of the Small Land Bill when District Judge George Calhoun of Travis county declared Monday that the bill was constitutional. The attorney general's department seeks to set the law aside as being unconstitutional.

The case will be taken by the attorney general to the supreme court in an effort to invalidate title to oil lands in several Panhandle counties.

SENIOR RECEPTION

S. H. Condon, sponsor of the senior class of the College, and Mrs. Condon held a reception for the class at their home Tuesday afternoon. More than ninety of the 110 members of the class were present.

Miss Mary Morgan Brown who had assisted the seniors with their class play was presented a beautiful travelling bag, as a mark of their appreciation of her work.

MISS STRAIN ENTERTAINS

Miss Ruth Strain was hostess Monday evening at a dinner party at her home to the out-going and incoming editors and business managers of The Prairie and Le Mirage, publications of W. T. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Strain home on this occasion were Miss Minerva Bookout, Miss Anna Throckmorton, Delmer Ashworth, Lea Forrest, Doc Haley, and Seth Rollins.

Why Grusendorf Likes This City

Why he likes Canyon was told Tuesday by A. A. Grusendorf to the Rotary Club.

As a compliment to West Texas, this section has the biggest people in Texas.

When Canyon gets ready to do things, the town goes ahead and accomplishes it. There is no fooling around about it.

The beautiful homes are a tribute to the people who live here.

Canyon is the cleanest town physically west of Fort Worth. The people are big hearted, and show a spirit of magnanimity.

Mr. Grusendorf greatly appreciated having had the privilege to live in Canyon for the past three years.

Frances Collins and Terrell Christian Marry Here Sunday

Miss Frances Collins and Mr. Terrell Christian were married last Sunday afternoon at the home of the Rev. J. H. Braswell, according to advices given friends. The Rev. Mr. Braswell performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Christian is the daughter of Mrs. Tom Collins of Canyon and is a graduate of Canyon High School and an ex-student of the West Texas State Teachers College. Mrs. Collins has lived at Kress until recently when she moved to Canyon. Mrs. Christian taught school this year near Plainview.

Mr. Christian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Christian of Claude and formerly of Canyon. He graduated from Canyon High School and attended the West Texas State Teachers College here two years.

The young couple will make their home near Claude where Mr. Christian is in the cattle business.

Grusendorf Talks on International Feature of the Rotary Club

Prof. A. A. Grusendorf, who left yesterday for Brenham to become president of the Blinn Memorial College, talked Tuesday at the meeting of the Rotary Club. He praised the international spirit of Rotary, and the effect it will have on international peace and prosperity.

People are learning to get along better in spite of keen competition. They are using their brains to settle arguments rather than their fists. Rotary is finding that international questions may be settled by getting together and talking over differences, rather than fighting them out. Mr. Grusendorf called attention to the fact that France and Germany was now exchanging university professors in order that they may give each other their viewpoint on international questions, especially the world war.

Two great problems were confronting the world today, according to the speaker, war and crime. In the United States, there are three particular phases of the crime question which demands the thought of the public. The causes of crime; how to improve detection of crime; and what to do with the criminal.

Mr. Grusendorf states that crime is recognized as a social product, brought about through environment. He called attention to the fact that in Germany the criminal is soon apprehended because the people are not allowed to move or even visit for a few days or make trips without signing up cards. This may sound severe, but the law abiding people are willing to go to a little inconvenience in order to gain the protection. What to do with the criminal has long been a social problem, and is one that the best people of the land should make an effort to solve.

J. L. Bruebaker of Amarillo was a guest at the luncheon.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

J. A. Hill, president. Clyde W. Warwick, vice president.

A. E. Terry, secretary-treasurer. Directors—the four officers together with Tom Knighton, Wesley Kleinschmidt and T. C. Thompson.

COUNTY SCHOOLS CLOSE

All of the county schools have closed their terms for the year, according to Judge B. F. Fronbarger, ex-officio superintendent. The year has been a most successful one in all of the schools of the county.

Scholarships Are Awarded Students Here Wednesday

Three students, not seniors, were made happy at the graduation exercises here yesterday when President J. A. Hill announced the winners of the various scholarships. To Miss Inez Allen, a junior of Waco, went the regents' scholarship, which carries with it a prize of $100.00.

Eurith Compton of Portales, New Mexico, was awarded the Harley Sadler scholarship which is given each year to the student who has done outstanding work in the speech arts and who expects to continue in this field of work. Compton is a junior and the $100 which this award carries will help him defray the expenses of his senior year.

To Miss Pearl Davis of Silverton was awarded the prize for the most consistent work upon The Prairie, student weekly publication.

Miss Anna Throckmorton of Borger, editor of The Prairie, and L. A. Osgood, head of the English department chose the person for this prize. This prize is furnished by Olin E. Hinkle of Pampa.

Winners of other scholarships will be announced shortly after the opening of the summer session.

First Commission Given Post Master Now Is In Museum

The commission of the first Postmaster at Mobeetie, Texas, is in the possession of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society here. This commission was issued to George A. Montgomery on the 27th day of September, 1879.

George A. Montgomery now lives in Hot Springs, New Mexico. The commission which was signed by D. M. Key, then Postmaster General of the United States, came to the Historical Society through Judge O. R. McCormick of Canadian, Texas.

A few months after being made Postmaster at Mobeetie, Montgomery also became a member of the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County. His commission is signed by Governor O. M. Roberts and T. H. Bowman, Secretary of State. Both these commissions are framed and take their place with the collection of official documents representative of an early period of Panhandle history.

BUYS WHOLESALE OIL BUSINESS OF JOHNSON

The Consumers Oil Company has bought the wholesale oil business of G. W. Johnson, and will take charge of the business Friday. Andy Walsh and Elzie Price have been associated with Mr. Johnson in this business.

Worth A. Jennings will manage the business for the Consumers.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN HONORED BY DINNER

Mrs. J. E. Dickinson gave a dinner at the one o'clock hour last Sunday in honor of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen of Norman, Okla., who have been visiting here the past two weeks. The dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson south of Canyon. Other guests were Mrs. J. D. Tucker of Lamesa, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sloan of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Costley, and Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver.

Grandmother Gets Degree From W. T. With Class of '29

A grandmother received her bachelor's degree here yesterday as a member of the class of 1929 of the West Texas State Teachers College. She is Mrs. Winnie Davis of Wilson, Okla. Her daughter, Mrs. Earl Stevens of Hastings, Oklahoma, came to see her graduate.

Mrs. Stevens said, "Usually it is the mother who is proud of her daughter, but in our family this is reversed, but I am certainly proud of my mother."

Mrs. Davis has taught for many years in the schools of Texas and Oklahoma; she has made history her major study and expects to teach this subject in the public schools when she returns to her work this fall.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Junior Woman's Club closed its club year Monday afternoon with a very interesting program which consisted of a talk by Mrs. Levi Cole on "The World's Greatest Overland Explorer," and one by Mrs. J. M. Daugherty on "Reverent Germany." The club plans a picnic for their families during the next week.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF COLLEGE IS GIVEN DEGREES AT COMMENCEMENT YESTERDAY

Hill Hands Diplomas to 110 Students at End of Nineteenth Year of W. T. S. T. C.—President Sandefer of Simmons U. is Speaker.

Degrees were conferred upon 110 members of the senior class of the West Texas State Teachers College at the formal graduation exercise in the school auditorium yesterday morning. About half of this number of students will remain here during the summer to finish requirements for degrees, it was announced.

The class was the largest in the ten years the school has been conferring degrees, and the commencement marked the close of the nineteenth long session of the college.

"We have seen many splendid classes go out from this institution," President J. A. Hill of the College told the graduates, "but there is none in which we have more pride than we have in you." President Hill personally handed each graduate the degree-certificate of the institution.

J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University, Baptist-owned and supported school at Abilene, made a plea for a combination of religion with education in the state public schools and colleges in the commencement address.

Deploping a spirit of independence found in undergraduate students in all great universities of the land, Dr. Sandefer said "sovereignty must rest somewhere other than in the hands of the youth of this country."

"There are certain ordeals which you must all go through if your soul is to reach proper development," he said.

Dr. Sandefer said he had found a poverty of leadership in schools which he had visited on numerous trips around the country.

"The state has lost the substance it bestowed upon you," he told the graduates, "if you cannot lead the way out of the disintegration of the old order."

"The world doesn't need more 'bright' men and women," he declared, but does, he thinks, need thousands who can give Christian understanding along with higher education. Universities have unwittingly produced the super-criminals of every age, he said, mainly because moral training and character development have not been commensurate with the intellectual training given.

"There are too many people going to college," he said, "Only those who find and develop themselves in college should be there. College is no place for persons seeking only social position and a life of ease. Education, in the true sense, never brings ease—rather it brings harder work and greater problems and greater burdens and responsibilities."

The speaker used President Herbert Hoover as his example of the highest type of Christian American citizen and analyzed his character to show his fundamental virtues.

Visitors from all parts of Texas were present to attend the commencement exercises. Among them were parents from forty-six communities of Texas and from New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Attributing a lack of religious teaching in the public schools to the division of church and state in America, Dr. Sandefer asked the graduates to put religion into the schools so that students, sound morally and spiritually, might be graduated from them into life.

Sandefer ended his talk with a plea for abstinence on the part of the college people, portraying liquor and tobacco as sinister evils which should be avoided by the educated man and woman.

Announcement was made during the commencement program of scholarship awards to Eurith Compton, Portales, N. M., who was awarded the dramatic prize; to Miss Pearl Davis of Silverton, who was voted the Olin E. Hinkle award for the most valuable staff member of The Prairie; and to Miss Inez Allen of Waco, who was awarded the coveted Regents Scholarship and the $100 prize it carries.

Additional awards will be announced at the opening of the summer school, according to President Hill. Some scholarship prizes were held up until grades for the quarter just closing have been reported.

Commencement week began at the school last Sunday morning when the baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Irving P. Johnson, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado.

A play given by the senior class last Thursday evening, and a concert by college musical organizations under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark, were also features of the commencement season.

Class day programs by the seniors were presented Tuesday, and the reception of President and Mrs. Hill to the senior class was held Tuesday evening at Randall Hall.

The class day program was planned to represent a reunion of the Class of 1929 ten years after graduation. Progress and accomplishments of many of the leading seniors were detailed by speakers looking back across the "decade."

Names of the graduates are as follows: Mrs. Helen Duke McCuan, Ina May Hopkins, Mary Edith Hopkins, Mary Frances Miller, Hazel Barton, Mrs. Ernestine O'Brien, June Koller, DeWitt Landis, all of Amarillo; Doris Leggett of Wellington; Lorena Holland of Bradshaw; Very Fry, Emma Lou McKinney and Lela Frank Swain, of Floydada; Marion Joseph Weaver of Ballinger; Mattie Anna Jordan, Nelius Tedford, Hazelle Cantrell, Vernon Harman, Stella Strange, and Marjorie Walters of Tulsa; Delmar Ashworth of Lockney.

Paving Not Opened Until More Has Been Completed is Report

Although the time has elapsed when a part of the new paved highway between Canyon and Amarillo could be opened for traffic, it is proposed to not open any of it until the entire unit covered by the present contract has been completed. The first section starts at the bottom of the big hill north of Canyon, and will be completed to Hollywood within a short while.

Work on the underpass is progressing slowly. The big dump on the creek bottom is being ponded with water and it is thought that it will be ready for paving just as soon as the underpass is completed, but will call for another paving contract. It is thought confidently that the highway will be completed and ready for traffic about the first of September.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Collins of Amarillo were here yesterday for the commencement exercises.

M. Types of Ft. Worth, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, Mrs. J. D. Gamble, Mrs. J. S. Humphreys, Mrs. R. A. Terrill, Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. M. S. Bishir, and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick.

MRS. CLYDE W. WARWICK ENTERTAINS FOR MISS BURROW

Another of the lovely social affairs honoring Miss Dorothy Burrow, who is to become the bride of Robert A. Neblett of Galveston on June 1, occurred Monday afternoon when Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick entertained at her home.

Guests included the honoree, her house guests, Miss Elva McDonald of Galveston, and Mrs. E. H. Ackley of Waxahachie, Mrs. C. R. Burrow, her mother, and a group of her many friends.

The home of Mrs. Warwick was decorated in pastel shades, which had been chosen by the bride for her wedding, and a profusion of roses. Bridge was played at four tables. A guest prize was given Miss Burrow, and Mrs. R. A. Terrill and Mrs. Ethel Gray Shaw won first and second prizes on the score. These prizes were presented to Miss Burrow by the winners.

A salad course was served to Miss Burrow, Miss McDonald, Mrs. Ackley, Mrs. C. R. Burrow, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, Mrs. John S. Humphreys, Mrs. R. A. Terrill, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. O. N. Gamble, Mrs. J. B. Gamble, Mrs. A. W. Hamill, Mrs. Hubert Hamill, Mrs. Ethel Gray Shaw, Mrs. R. P. Jarrett, Mrs. C. H. Jarrett, Mrs. L. Angel, and Misses Hazel Allen, Cleo Holmes, Pauline Brigham, and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, the hostess.

MRS. D. A. SHIRLEY HONORS MISS BURROW WITH DINNER

A small but altogether delightful affair was the six o'clock dinner given by Mrs. D. A. Shirley at her home last Sunday evening as a courtesy to Miss Dorothy Burrow. A lovely bouquet of roses centered the table, and little bride place cards guided the guests to their places. Covers were laid for Miss Burrow, honoree, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow, Mrs. E. H. Ackley of Waxahachie, and Miss Elva McDonald of Galveston.

SECOND TRADES DAY EVENT IS FAIR SUCCESS

CROWD SMALLER BUT BUSINESS WAS GOOD.

Merchants and Consumers Favor Continuation of Monthly Event For Rest of Year.

Monday brought bright, sunny weather following the heavy rains of the past month, and Trades Day in Canyon did not bring the large crowd which came to Canyon for the April Trades Day.

However, most of the business houses of Canyon were well pleased with the results of the day, and desire to make Trades Day a regular monthly feature on the last Monday of each month.

Merchants realize that owing to the heavy rains farmers should be in the fields every possible minute now, and were therefore not disappointed at the small crowd here Monday.

Col. J. M. McCrerey of Wayside was here, but owing to the small number of things offered for the public sale decided that it would not pay to start the free public auction. He states that he is confident that the farmers will be too busy to attend an auction sale June, but suggests that the free auction feature be continued in July.

Business men of Canyon will likely meet in a few days to lay plans for the June Trades Day. While that time will be right in the middle of the wheat harvest, there are many merchants who wish to continue the monthly Trades Day for the benefit of those who are able to come, and to keep this monthly feature in the minds of the people.

The News distributed 2500 copies of last week's edition, and as a result added many new names to the subscription list. The News is doing everything possible to make the Trades Day monthly a great drawing card for the business houses of Canyon, and appreciates the co-operation of the business houses in getting in their copy early.

Citizens of this section are urged to watch for the further announcements regarding the Trades Day which will probably be held on June 24.

Summer School Outlook Very Promising According to Dean

Dean of Men Harris Cook states that the outlook for the summer session of the College is most promising. He has had more requests for rooms for boys than for any past summer session. The same situation is true for the girls, according to Dean of Women, Mrs. Geraldine Green.

The summer session opens next Wednesday, and it is expected that a large number of students will begin to arrive in the city by the end of this week.

Members of the College faculty who have made commencement addresses over the Plains this spring are highly pleased with the promise for students for both this summer and for the fall session.

UPHOLDS LAND BILL

Land owners in the Panhandle won the first court battle for the validation of the Small Land Bill when District Judge George Calhoun of Travis county declared Monday that the bill was constitutional. The attorney general's department seeks to set the law aside as being unconstitutional.

The case will be taken by the attorney general to the supreme court in an effort to invalidate title to oil lands in several Panhandle counties.

SENIOR RECEPTION

S. H. Condon, sponsor of the senior class of the College, and Mrs. Condon held a reception for the class at their home Tuesday afternoon. More than ninety of the 110 members of the class were present.

Miss Mary Morgan Brown who had assisted the seniors with their class play was presented a beautiful travelling bag, as a mark of their appreciation of her work.

MISS STRAIN ENTERTAINS

Miss Ruth Strain was hostess Monday evening at a dinner party at her home to the out-going and incoming editors and business managers of The Prairie and Le Mirage. Publications of W. T. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Strain home on this occasion were Miss Minerva Bookout, Miss Anna Throckmorton, Delmer Ashworth, Lea Forrest, Doc Haley, and Seth Rollins.

Why Grusendorf Likes This City

Why he likes Canyon was told Tuesday by A. A. Grusendorf to the Rotary Club.

As a compliment to West Texas, this section has the biggest people in Texas.

When Canyon gets ready to do things, the town goes ahead and accomplishes it. There is no fooling around about it.

The beautiful homes are a tribute to the people who live here.

Canyon is the cleanest town physically west of Fort Worth. The people are big hearted, and show a spirit of magnanimity.

Mr. Grusendorf greatly appreciated having had the privilege to live in Canyon for the past three years.

Frances Collins and Terrell Christian Marry Here Sunday

Miss Frances Collins and Mr. Terrell Christian were married last Sunday afternoon at the home of the Rev. J. H. Braswell, according to advices given friends. The Rev. Mr. Braswell performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Christian is the daughter of Mrs. Tom Collins of Canyon and is a graduate of Canyon High School and an ex-student of the West Texas State Teachers College. Mrs. Collins has lived at Kress until recently when she removed to Canyon. Mrs. Christian taught school this year near Plainview.

Mr. Christian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Christian of Claude and formerly of Canyon. He graduated from Canyon High School and attended the West Texas State Teachers College here two years.

The young couple will make their home near Claude where Mr. Christian is in the cattle business.

Grusendorf Talks on International Feature of the Rotary Club

Prof. A. A. Grusendorf, who left yesterday for Brenham to become president of the Blinn Memorial College, talked Tuesday at the meeting of the Rotary Club. He praised the international spirit of Rotary, and the effect it will have on international peace and prosperity.

People are learning to get along better in spite of keen competition. They are using their brains to settle arguments rather than their fists. Rotary is finding that international questions may be settled by getting together and talking over differences, rather than fighting them out. Mr. Grusendorf called attention to the fact that France and Germany was now exchanging university professors in order that they may give each other their viewpoint on international questions, especially the world war.

Two great problems were confronting the world today, according to the speaker, war and crime. In the United States, there are three particular phases of the crime question which demands the thought of the public. The causes of crime; how to improve detection of crime; and what to do with the criminal.

Mr. Grusendorf states that crime is recognized as a social product, brought about through environment. He called attention to the fact that in Germany the criminal is soon apprehended because the people are not allowed to move or even visit for a few days or make trips without signing up cards. This may sound severe, but the law abiding people are willing to go to a little inconvenience in order to gain the protection. What to do with the criminal has long been a social problem, and is one that the best people of the land should make an effort to solve.

J. L. Bruebaker of Amarillo was a guest at the luncheon.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: J. A. Hill, president.

Clyde W. Warwick, vice president.

A. E. Terry, secretary-treasurer.

Directors—the four officers together with Tom Knighton, Wesley Kleinschmidt and T. C. Thompson.

COUNTY SCHOOLS CLOSE

All of the county schools have closed their terms for the year, according to Judge B. F. Fronbarger, ex-officio superintendent. The year has been a most successful one in all of the schools of the county.

Scholarships Are Awarded Students Here Wednesday

Three students, not seniors, were made happy at the graduation exercises here yesterday when President J. A. Hill announced the winners of the various scholarships. To Miss Inez Allen, a junior of Waco, went the regents' scholarship, which carries with it a prize of $100.00.

Eurith Compton of Portales, New Mexico, was awarded the Harley Sadler scholarship which is given each year to the student who has done outstanding work in the speech arts and who expects to continue in this field of work. Compton is a junior and the $100 which this award carries will help him defray the expenses of his senior year.

To Miss Pearl Davis of Silverton was awarded the prize for the most consistent work upon The Prairie, student weekly publication. Miss Anna Throckmorton of Borger, editor of The Prairie, and L. A. Osgood, head of the English department chose the person for this prize. This prize is furnished by Olin E. Hinkle of Pampa.

Winners of other scholarships will be announced shortly after the opening of the summer session.

First Commission Given Post Master Now Is In Museum

The commission of the first Postmaster at Mobeetie, Texas, is in the possession of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society here. This commission was issued to George A. Montgomery on the 27th day of September, 1879.

George A. Montgomery now lives in Hot Springs, New Mexico. The commission which was signed by D. M. Key, then Postmaster General of the United States, came to the Historical Society through Judge O. R. McMordie of Canadian, Texas.

A few months after being made Postmaster at Mobeetie, Montgomery also became a member of the Commissioners Court of Wheeler County. His commission is signed by Governor O. M. Roberts and T. H. Bowman, Secretary of State.

Both these commissions are framed and take their place with the collection of official documents representative of an early period of Panhandle history.

BUYS WHOLESALE OIL BUSINESS OF JOHNSON

The Consumers Oil Company has bought the wholesale oil business of G. W. Johnson, and will take charge of the business Friday. Andy Walsh and Elzie Price have been associated with Mr. Johnson in this business.

Worth A. Jennings will manage the business for the Consumers.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN HONORED WITH DINNER

Mrs. J. E. Dickinson gave a dinner at the one o'clock hour last Sunday in honor of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen of Norman, Okla., who have been visiting here the past two weeks. The dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson south of Canyon. Other guests were Mrs. J. D. Tucker of Lamesa, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sloan of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Costley, and Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver.

Grandmother Gets Degree From W. T. With Class of '29

A grandmother received her bachelor's degree here yesterday as a member of the class of 1929 of the West Texas State Teachers College. She is Mrs. Winnie Davis of Wilson, Okla. Her daughter, Mrs. Earl Stevens of Hastings, Oklahoma, came to see her graduate.

Mrs. Stevens said, "Usually it is the mother who is proud of her daughter, but in our family this is reversed, but I am certainly proud of my mother."

Mrs. Davis has taught for many years in the schools of Texas and Oklahoma; she has made history her major study and expects to teach this subject in the public schools when she returns to her work this fall.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Junior Woman's Club closed its club year Monday afternoon with a very interesting program which consisted of a talk by Mrs. Levi Cole on "The World's Greatest Overland Explorer," and one by Mrs. J. M. Daugherty on "Renaissance Germany." The club plans a picnic for their families during the next week.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY OF COLLEGE IS GIVEN DEGREES AT COMMENCEMENT YESTERDAY

Hill Hands Diplomas to 110 Students at End of Nineteenth Year of W. T. S. T. C.—President Sandefer of Simmons U. is Speaker.

Degrees were conferred upon 110 members of the senior class of the West Texas State Teachers College at the formal graduation exercise in the school auditorium yesterday morning. About half of this number of students will remain here during the summer to finish requirements for degrees, it was announced.

The class was the largest in the ten years the school has been conferring degrees, and the commencement marked the close of the nineteenth long session of the college.

"We have seen many splendid classes go out from this institution," President J. A. Hill of the College told the graduates, "but there is none in which we have more pride than we have in you." President Hill personally handed each graduate the degree-certificate of the institution.

J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University, Baptist-owned and supported school at Abilene, made a plea for a combination of religion with education in the state public schools and colleges in the commencement address.

Deploping a spirit of independence found in undergraduate students in all great universities of the land, Dr. Sandefer said "sovereignty must rest somewhere other than in the hands of the youth of this country."

"There are certain ordeals which you must all go through if your soul is to reach proper development," he said.

Dr. Sandefer said he had found a poverty of leadership in schools which he had visited on numerous trips around the country.

"The state has lost the substance it bestowed upon you," he told the graduates, "if you cannot lead the way out of the disintegration of the old order."

"The world doesn't need more 'bright' men and women," he declared, but does, he thinks, need thousands who can give Christian understanding along with higher education. Universities have unwittingly produced the super-criminals of every age, he said, mainly because moral training and character development have not been commensurate with the intellectual training given.

"There are too many people going to college," he said. "Only those who find and develop themselves in college should be there. College is no place for persons seeking only social position and a life of ease. Education, in the true sense, never brings ease—rather it brings harder work and greater problems and greater burdens and responsibilities."

The speaker used President Herbert Hoover as his example of the highest type of Christian American citizen and analyzed his character to show his fundamental virtues.

Visitors from all parts of Texas were present to attend the commencement exercises. Among them were parents from forty-six communities of Texas and from New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Attributing a lack of religious teaching in the public schools to the division of church and state in America, Dr. Sandefer asked the graduates to put religion into the schools so that students, sound morally and spiritually, might be graduated from them into life.

Sandefer ended his talk with a plea for abstinence on the part of the college people, portraying liquor and tobacco as sinister evils which should be avoided by the educated man and woman.

Announcement was made during the commencement program of scholarship awards to Eurith Compton, Portales, N. M., who was awarded the dramatic prize; to Miss Pearl Davis of Silverton, who was voted the Olin E. Hinkle award for the most valuable staff member of The Prairie; and to Miss Inez Allen of Waco, who was awarded the coveted Regents Scholarship and the $100 prize it carries.

Additional awards will be announced at the opening of the summer school, according to President Hill. Some scholarship prizes were held up until grades for the quarter just closing have been reported.

Commencement week began at the school last Sunday morning when the baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Irving P. Johnson, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Colorado.

A play given by the senior class last Thursday evening, and a concert by college musical organizations under the direction of Prof. Wallace R. Clark, were also features of the commencement season.

Class day programs by the seniors were presented Tuesday, and the reception of President and Mrs. Hill to the senior class was held Tuesday evening at Randall Hall.

The class day program was planned to represent a reunion of the Class of 1929 ten years after graduation. Progress and accomplishments of many of the leading seniors were detailed by speakers looking back across the "decade."

Names of the graduates are as follows: Mrs. Helen Duke McCuan, Ina May Hopkins, Mary Edith Hopkins, Mary Frances Miller, Hazel Barton, Mrs. Ernestine O'Brien, June Kollar, DeWitt Landis, all of Amarillo; Doris Leggett of Wellington; Lorena Holland of Bradshaw; Very Fry, Emma Lou McKinney and Lela Frank Swain, of Floydada; Marion Joseph Weaver of Ballinger; Mattie Anna Jordan, Nellus Tedford, Hazelle Cantrell, Vernon Harman, Stella Strange, and Marjorie Walters of Tulsa; Delmar Ashworth of Lockney.

Paving Not Opened Until More Has Been Completed is Report

Although the time has elapsed when a part of the new paved highway between Canyon and Amarillo could be opened for traffic it is proposed to not open any of it until the entire unit covered by the present contract has been completed. The first section starts at the bottom of the big hill north of Canyon, and will be completed to Hollywood within a short while.

Work on the underpass is progressing slowly. The big dump on the creek bottom is being ponded with water and it is thought that it will be ready for paving just as soon as the underpass is completed, but will call for another paving contract. It is thought confidently that the highway will be completed and ready for traffic about the first of September.

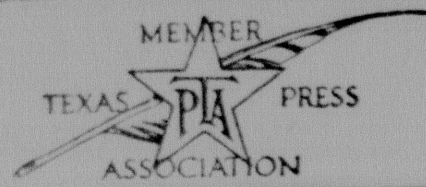

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Collins of Amarillo were here yesterday for the commencement exercises.

THE PANHANDLE

It is mighty good to be at home for a short while after being away most of the time since the first of January. The trouble is that we must leave again Saturday to attend the second called session of the legislature, which will probably continue for another month, and with possibilities of even a longer session if agreement cannot be readily made on the appropriations bills.

With all the fine people in Texas, and all of the attractive places there are in the state, there is none that stand up to the wonderful Panhandle country. The Panhandle certainly is beautiful compared with other sections, although Texas boasts of as fine scenery, and as great a selection of climate as there are to be found any place in the United States.

There promises to be a 100,000,000 bushel wheat crop in the Panhandle. With such a big yield in view, the price will be low, and even if the farmers get the biggest yield the country has ever had, the actual money return may not be so large as in many other years. This is a condition which always confronts the farmer. When he produces largely any crop, he gets a small price, and in many instances a smaller money return than in years which are only normal.

But there are none who will complain at the big crop this year. It is another fine example of what the Panhandle will produce when this country gets a fair break. However, the crop is not yet harvested, and until it is harvested there is nothing absolutely certain about it.

Owing to the favorable season, it is expected that harvest will be a little earlier this year than in former years. It is expected wheat will be on the market soon after the middle of June, should the favorable weather continue. From then on, farmers will be in the fields from early morning until late at night.

More combines have been sold this year in this section of the Plains than in recent years. Every farmer is getting ready to handle his own crop so far as possible. The combine is a wonderful machine for the farmer, and has replaced the long hard harvest season of yesterday, when the shortage of labor made harvest long and expensive.

In fact it is wonderful how machinery has relieved hand labor in all walks of life, and given people more time in which to enjoy themselves. Every new invention brings added opportunities for the laborer, rather than suppressing him, as was generally thought would be the result in the early days of development in the machine period.

More changes in the newspaper field of the Panhandle have taken place. Our good friend Seth B. Holman has sold the Hereford Brand to the Nunn-Warren interests. Holman was one of the most brilliant editors the Panhandle has produced, but long continued illness made it necessary for him to relinquish his newspaper in Hereford.

Down at Quanah, Harry Koch, dean of the Panhandle newspaper fraternity, has decided to take a rest and has sold the splendid Tribune-Chief to the Hawk-Howe interests, owners of the Amarillo News. This organization jumped up to Dalhart and have bought the Dalhart Texan from C. H. Walker. John McCarty, a former student in the college will edit the Texan. It makes the independent publishers wonder just when the big chain boys will walk into our plants and take over the management.

This is the age of extensive organization, and the chain store has resulted. To what extent it will continue no one knows. The independent grocery and dry goods man is asking the question. The independent filling station is wondering how long the big oil companies will allow him to continue to run his little business. Extensive organization backed by tremendous capital is taking charge of the business life of America. It is predicted that the Bank of Italy, which owns the banking interests of the Pacific will soon start operations in other states.

Life is going to be worth living in the future, just to see what business can accomplish in the way of wonderful extensive development.

Canyon's public school closed last week with appropriate exercises. A class of splendid boys and girls received diplomas, and most of them will continue their work in college this fall. The schools of the land are the nation's safeguard, and no one should grudgingly pay to the support of the public school system. The school system is the most important cultural center of the community, and should receive the hardy support of all citizens.

Randall county has more automobiles registered this year than ever before. A few years ago a prominent banker made the public statement that if the people continued to buy cars the Panhandle would be bankrupt. This section has never seen greater prosperity. Even bankers make mistakes.

Some people wonder why it is a crime to steal flowers. Those who do not go to the trouble and expense of raising flowers are the ones who indulge in this practice. If they will invest some of the money and manual labor necessary to raise flowers, it will cure them of this practice. Don't steal flowers.

Land sales are reported to be good in many parts of the Panhandle. The big wheat crop is centering the eyes of the Southwest on the Plains, and more people may be expected to move to this section than in any recent short period. The Plains represents the last great body of undeveloped land in the United States—land that may be put under cultivation without great effort and expense, and farmers in the older states looking for a new location will be attracted to this section.

Land on the Plains at $25 to $50 per acre is cheap, and a good investment. Land in the Rio Grande Valley sells in the raw state at a much higher price, and it takes $100 to $150 per acre to clear it, get the water to it, and plant it to citrus fruit trees. No wonder great development may soon be expected on the Plains.

A large row crop is promised for the Panhandle this year, and the excellent season promises to bring a good yield.

In fact, everything looks good for the Panhandle this year.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Do you remember way back when, (Say thirty, forty years)
You never saw your sweetheart's limbs—
But judged her by her ears.

The kids were washed each Saturday night.

Their daddy cut their hair;
Their suit was made from their uncle's pants,
And they wore no underwear.

The women padded but did not paint.

Nor smoke, nor drink, nor vote.
The men wore boots and little stiff hats,
And whiskers like a goat.

Not a soul had appendicitis
Nor buying of buying glands;
The butcher gave his liver away,
But charged you for his hands.

You never needed a bank account,
Your beer was 6 per cent;
The hired girl got 3 bucks a week,
And twelve bones paid the rent.

You could stand each night when the work was o'er,
With one foot on the rail,
And your hip supported not a thing.

Except your own shirt tail.

Speeders should remember that while there may not be another car within a mile it's only six feet to the ditch.

To be strictly ethical we judge that one should smoke at least 51 per cent of the brand of cigarettes which he endorses.

S. S. S. Firm Rushes
Season's Output of Well Known Medicine

The S. S. S. company, manufacturers of the nationally-known medicinal compound, announced Saturday that they are now finishing the present season's manufacture of S. S. S. According to Walter D. Lamar, president of the firm, the demand is so great that the company has been compelled to operate day and night.

"The S. S. S. company employs a force of more than 400 men, who gather the roots and herbs for this compound. These roots and herbs may be gathered only in the winter, and under supervision of trained company officials," Mr. Lamar says. "These roots are rushed to the Atlanta factory in motor trucks so that the medicinal juices may be extracted while still fresh and green."

Visitors to the S. S. S. plant in Atlanta are always welcome. The remedy has been manufactured since 1826. The large demand for the present season's supply has necessitated the operation of both the manufacturing and the bottling plant with double shifts, announcements show.

MISS MILLER ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Frances Miller entertained a group of her friends with a dinner in the "room upstairs" of the Co-Ed Inn Friday evening. The room was decorated with sweet peas, on the table, and maroon and white carnations in floor baskets. Place cards were in the form of intelligence tests, and in order to receive a diploma, it was necessary to pass the tests. The diplomas were favors for the Seniors and contained georgette handkerchiefs as gifts. Ballet girls were favors to the underclassmen present and as gifts they received paste perfume. The nut baskets were adorned with figures in caps and gowns.

Those present were, Dalma Fry, Vera Fry, Bert Hicks, Arless O'Keefe, Margaret Purvins, Iris Ribble, Mary Frances Miller, Ione Ball, Alma Gibson, and Zella Mae Waiser. Out of town guests were, Mrs. Walter Elder and Mrs. Roger Shook, both of Amarillo.

If you have any of the following symptoms, I have the remedy no matter what your trouble has been diagnosed: Nervousness, stomach trouble, loss of weight, loss of sleep, sore mouth, pains in the back and shoulders, peculiar swimming in the head, frothy like phlegm in throat, passing mucous from the bowels, especially after taking purgative, burning feet, brown, rough or yellow skin, burning or itching skin, rash on the hands, face and arms resembling sunburn, habitual constipation, (sometimes alternating with diarrhoea) copper or metallic taste, skin sensitive to sunheat, forgetfulness, despondency and thoughts that you might lose your mind, gums a fiery red and falling away from the teeth, general weakness with loss of energy.

If you have these symptoms and have taken all kinds of medicine and still sick, I especially want you to write for my booklet.

Mrs. J. B. Massey of Odessa, Texas, Box 112, whose picture appears here writes: I wish to thank you very much for restoring my health from one of the most dreadful, miserable diseases that anyone can have. I was in bad health for several years, under care of Doctors for three years. I do not think I could have lived much longer. I am in better health today than for several years; weigh more than I ever did in my life. I believe I am rid of an awful disease that the other Doctors failed to cure.

Years of service in MODEL T FORDS

THE Model T was so strongly and sturdily built that it is still rendering reliable, economical service to motorists in every section of the country. Millions of these cars can be put in shape for two, three and five more years of use at very small cost.

So that you may have this work done economically and satisfactorily, the Ford Motor Company is still devoting a considerable section of its plants to the manufacture of Model T parts. It will continue to do so as long as they are needed by Model T owners. The following list gives the approximate labor charges for reconditioning the Model T Ford:—

Engine
Tune motor (including replacement of commutator case, brush and vibrator points if necessary)	-	$1.00
Grind valves and clean carbon	-	$3.75 to 4.00
Overhaul carburetor	-	1.50
Reline detachable car transmission bands	-	1.50
Install new pistons or connecting rods	-	6.00
Tighten all main bearings	-	6.00
Overhaul motor and transmission	-	$20.00 to 25.00

Rear System
Replace rear axle assembly	-	2.50
Install universal joint	-	3.00
Reline brake shoes	-	1.50
Replace rear axle shaft, drive shaft pinion, or drive gear	-	5.00
Overhaul complete rear axle assembly	-	$5.75 to 7.00
Rebush spring and perches	-	1.75
Oil and graphite springs	-	3.00

Front System
Overhaul front axle	-	$4.95 to 5.00
Rebush spindle bodies and arms (both sides)	-	2.50
Replace or straighten spindle connecting rod	-	.75
Tighten radius rod or steering ball cap	-	.60
Tighten all sockets and joints of front end	-	1.50
Replace front spring tie bolt or new leaf	-	2.50
Straighten front axle	-	3.00

Chassis
Replace rear fender	-	1.75
Overhaul steering gear	-	3.50
Repair muffler	-	1.00
Overhaul radiator	-	7.50
Repaint Coupe	-	25.00
Repaint Sedan	-	25.00
Repaint Touring Car	-	20.00
Reupholster Runabout	-	8.00
Reupholster Touring Car	-	15.00
Replace top deck (Coupe or Sedan)	-	4.00
Overhaul starting motor	-	3.00
Overhaul generator	-	2.60

These prices are approximate and are for labor only, because the need and number of new parts depend on the condition of each car. The charge for these parts is low, however, because of the established Ford policy of manufacturing and selling at a small margin of profit.

THE PANHANDLE

It is mighty good to be at home for a short while after being away most of the time since the first of January. The trouble is that we must leave again Saturday to attend the second called session of the legislature, which will probably continue for another month, and with possibilities of even a longer session if agreement cannot be readily made on the appropriations bills.

With all the fine people in Texas, and all of the attractive places there are in the state, there is none that stand up to the wonderful Panhandle country. The Panhandle certainly is beautiful compared with other sections, although Texas boasts of as fine scenery, and as great a selection of climate as there are to be found any place in the United States.

There promises to be a 100,000,000 bushel wheat crop in the Panhandle. With such a big yield in view, the price will be low, and even if the farmers get the biggest yield the country has ever had, the actual money return may not be so large as in many other years. This is a condition which always confronts the farmer. When he produces largely any crop, he gets a small price, and in many instances a smaller money return than in years which are only normal.

But there are none who will complain at the big crop this year. It is another fine example of what the Panhandle will produce when this country gets a fair break. However, the crop is not yet harvested, and until it is harvested there is nothing absolutely certain about it.

Owing to the favorable season, it is expected that harvest will be a little earlier this year than in former years. It is expected wheat will be on the market soon after the middle of June, should the favorable weather continue. From then on, farmers will be in the fields from early morning until late at night.

More combines have been sold this year in this section of the Plains than in recent years. Every farmer is getting ready to handle his own crop so far as possible. The combine is a wonderful machine for the farmer, and has replaced the long hard harvest season of yesterday, when the shortage of labor made harvest long and expensive.

In fact it is wonderful how machinery has relieved hand labor in all walks of life, and given people more time in which to enjoy themselves. Every new invention brings added opportunities for the laborer, rather than suppressing him, as was generally thought would be the result in the early days of development in the machine period.

More changes in the newspaper field of the Panhandle have taken place. Our good friend Seth B. Holman has sold the Hereford Brand to the Nunn-Warren interests. Holman was one of the most brilliant editors the Panhandle has produced, but long continued illness made it necessary for him to relinquish his newspaper in Hereford.

Down at Quanah, Harry Koch, dean of the Panhandle newspaper fraternity, has decided to take a rest and has sold the splendid Tribune-Chief to the Hawk-Howe interests, owners of the Amarillo News. This organization jumped up to Dalhart and have bought the Dalhart Texan from C. H. Walker. John McCarty, a former student in the college will edit the Texan. It makes the independent publishers wonder just when the big chain boys will walk into our plants and take over the management.

This is the age of extensive organization, and the chain store has resulted. To what extent it will continue no one knows. The independent grocery and dry goods man is asking the question. The independent filling station is wondering how long the big oil companies will allow him to continue to run his little business. Extensive organization backed by tremendous capital is taking charge of the business life of America. It is predicted that the Bank of Italy, which owns the banking interests of the Pacific will soon start operations in other states.

Life is going to be worth living in the future, just to see what business can accomplish in the way of wonderful extensive development.

Canyon's public school closed last week with appropriate exercises. A class of splendid boys and girls received diplomas, and most of them will continue their work in college this fall. The schools of the land are the nation's safeguard, and no one should grudgingly pay to the support of the public school system. The school system is the most important cultural center of the community, and should receive the hardy support of all citizens.

Randall county has more automobiles registered this year than ever before. A few years ago a prominent banker made the public statement that if the people continued to buy cars the Panhandle would be bankrupt. This section has never seen greater prosperity. Even bankers make mistakes.

Some people wonder why it is a crime to steal flowers. Those who do not go to the trouble and expense of raising flowers are the ones who indulge in this practice. If they will invest some of the money and manual labor necessary to raise flowers, it will cure them of this practice. Don't steal flowers.

Land sales are reported to be good in many parts of the Panhandle. The big wheat crop is centering the eyes of the Southwest on the Plains, and more people may be expected to move to this section than in any recent short period. The Plains represents the last great body of undeveloped land in the United States—land that may be put under cultivation without great effort and expense, and farmers in the older states looking for a new location will be attracted to this section.

Land on the Plains at $25 to $50 per acre is cheap, and a good investment. Land in the Rio Grande Valley sells in the raw state at a much higher price, and it takes $100 to $150 per acre to clear it, get the water to it, and plant it to citrus fruit trees. No wonder great development may soon be expected on the Plains.

A large row crop is promised for the Panhandle this year, and the excellent season promises to bring a good yield.

In fact, everything looks good for the Panhandle this year.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Do you remember way back when, (Say thirty, forty years)
You never saw your sweetheart's limbs—
But judged her by her ears.

The kids were washed each Saturday night.

Their daddy cut their hair;
Their suit was made from their uncle's pants.
And they wore no underwear.

The women padded but did not paint.

Nor smoke, nor drink, nor vote.
The men wore boots and little stiff hats,
And whiskers like a goat.

Not a soul had appendicitis
Nor thought of buying glands;
The butcher gave his liver away,
But charged you for his hands.

You never needed a bank account,
Your beer was 6 per cent;
The hired girl got 3 bucks a week,
And twelve bones paid the rent.

You could stand each night when the work was o'er,
With one foot on the rail,
And your hip supported not a thing,
Except your own shirt tail.
—Author Unknown.

Speeders should remember that while there may not be another car within a mile it's only six feet to the ditch.

To be strictly ethical we judge that one should smoke at least 51 per cent of the brand of cigarettes which he endorses.

S. S. S. Firm Rushes Season's Output of Well Known Medicine

The S. S. S. company, manufacturers of the nationally-known medicinal compound, announced Saturday that they are now finishing the present season's manufacture of S. S. S. According to Walter D. Lamar, president of the firm, the demand is so great that the company has been compelled to operate day and night.

"The S. S. S. company employs a force of more than 400 men, who gather the roots and herbs for this compound. These roots and herbs may be gathered only in the winter, and under supervision of trained company officials," Mr. Lamar says. "These roots are rushed to the Atlanta factory in motor trucks so that the medicinal juices may be extracted while still fresh and green."

Visitors to the S. S. S. plant in Atlanta are always welcome. The remedy has been manufactured since 1826. The large demand for the present season's supply has necessitated the operation of both the manufacturing and the bottling plant with double shifts. announcements show.

MISS MILLER ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Frances Miller entertained a group of her friends with a dinner in the "room upstairs" of the Co-Ed Inn Friday evening. The room was decorated with sweet peas, on the table, and maroon and white carnations in floor baskets. Place cards were in the form of intelligence tests, and in order to receive a diploma, it was necessary to pass the tests. The diplomas were favors for the Seniors and contained georgette handkerchiefs as gifts. Ballet girls were favors to the underclassmen present and as gifts they received paste perfume. The nut baskets were adorned with figures in caps and gowns.

Those present were, Dalma Fry, Vera Fry, Bert Hicks, Arless O'Keefe, Margaret Purvines, Iris Ribble, Mary Frances Miller, Ione Ball, Alma Gibson, and Zella Mae Walser. Out of town guests were, Mrs. Walter Elder and Mrs. Roger Shook, both of Amarillo.

W. T. SENIORS HONOR GUESTS AT BREAKFAST

AFFAIR SUNDAY MORNING GIVEN FOR SENIORS BY METHODIST LADIES.

The ladies of the Methodist Church honored the seniors with a breakfast in the dining room of the church Sunday morning. Miss Swisher was hostess. About fifty seniors, wives, friends, and special guests were present.

The table was decorated with roses and dolls. Place cards were black, bearing a diploma, II Timothy, 2:15. A rosebud on each grape fruit basket and a trail of red and white ribbon carried out further the color scheme and the theme.

Mr. Condon, the first speaker after Miss Swisher's verse of welcome, began the idea of pioneer trails, applied to W. T. and especially to the senior class. He likened the class to Kit Carson, who, beside his last campfire felt at home. Mr. Condon hoped that each senior at the end of his career would like the noble trail blazer feel well pleased with the trails he had cleared.

Miss Richardson developed further the idea of pioneering. She said she felt it the greatest compliment that had been paid her by people when they adjudged her to be "an old timer" in Canyon. W. T., she said, has preserved the pioneer's spirit of perseverance and resourcefulness.

President Hill expressed his appreciation of the work done by the two student secretaries in developing the religious life of the students, and hoped that other churches would follow their "trail."

Miss Lowes and Miss Debo made short talks in appreciation of the work done by seniors in the past four years. There was no doubt that Miss Debo's good opinion rested entirely on the fact that all seniors "had been freshmen." Miss Lowes said this was the biggest and best of the four senior breakfasts she had attended.

Between times Bishop Johnson kept things lively with a choice list of stories. This is one of the best: "The world, in overalls, to the graduate in cap and gown, 'What have you, my dear?' 'A. B.' she said. 'Come with me,' he replied, 'I'll teach you the rest of the alphabet.'"

Mrs. Green and Mrs. Page, and Mr. McDonald spoke briefly. The latter presented Emma Lou McKinney, who spoke in behalf of the class its pleasure at the honor paid its members and the value received from their experiences in the Methodist organizations in Canyon.

Champs in Boxing Are Determined Here Last Monday

The finals of the Intramural Boxing Tournament were held last Monday evening in the gym. The champions of last year met champions of this year.

In the feather weight Minard Stevens, this year's champion defeated Marion Higdon, last year's champion, in four fast, thrilling rounds. In the welter weight, H. C. Hill, this year's champion, was defeated by Pat Gerald, last year's champion, in a fast fight. As to the light weight David Lee, last year's champion fought to a draw with Elbert Gee. Later it was decided by the drawing of lots in David Lee's favor.

This is probably the last of the intramural sports of this year. The winners will have the opportunity to defend their titles next year and an excellent Boxing Tournament is looked forward to for next year.

Marjorie Walters Is Presented in Excellent Recital

As a culmination of her college training in interpretation under the direction of Miss Mary Morgan Brown, Miss Marjorie Walters was presented in her senior recital Tuesday afternoon of last week. The program was in many respects the most beautiful that has been given in the college this year. Miss Walters' repertoire shows a wide variety. The program was opened with a reading of "The Nightingale and The Rose," a romantic story in lyric prose by Oscar Wilde. This was followed by a humorous dialogue, "Confessions," by Conan Doyle. The reading of the poem scene from "Romeo and Juliet," was the most dramatic selection of the program. The program was brought to a finish by the interpretation of Riley's child story, "Bud's Fairy Tale."

Miss Walters was assisted by her sister, Nelle, on the violin. Miss Thelma McMinn was the accompanist for the violin solos. In her usual charming manner, Miss Walters played three numbers on the violin. These were: "Cavotte" by Mozart-Ries; "Ave Maria," by Bach-Gounod; and "Serenade," by Pieme.

Debate Features Chapel Program

The question for debate before the student body last Tuesday at the chapel hour was: Resolved, That co-education should be abolished in institutions of higher learning. Miss Montie Draper and Mr. Virgil Thomas upheld the affirmative side of the question and were strongly opposed by Miss Opal Coley and Mr. Cummings.

Although the chairman, Mr. Robert Hunt, stated that the main speeches were to be eight minutes, each, the student body was entertained for an entire hour by these famous debaters. Many students were quoted, and the debaters often did not even agree with their colleagues.

The negative won by a small vote.

DELEGATES TO CAMP CHOSEN BY Y. W. GIRLS

MARIE DODGEN AND RUTH STRAIN WILL REPRESENT LOCAL GROUP AT MEET.

In a cabinet meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday evening at the home of Miss M. Moss Richardson, Misses Marie Dodgen and Ruth Strain were selected to be the representatives to the camp held in Hollister, Missouri.

Miss Dodgen has been secretary of the Y. W. for this year and has been one of the most efficient members of the organization. She has been one of the most efficient and the coming winter. Miss Dodgen is a member of the scholarship society and is well known among the students of W. T., having done all of her college work here.

Miss Strain will be the vice-president and chairman of the program committee next year. She is well known in musical circles of the college and churches of the town. She is the daughter of Mr. C. E. Strain, instructor in wind instruments and director of the band. Miss Strain is also a member of the scholarship society and has been editor of the college year-book for this year.

These girls will leave for Hollister June 3, and will return June 15. They will be able at this conference to meet many of the outstanding people in the work for young people in the United States, among them Mrs. Ames who was in W. T. in the fall term and will be remembered because of her interest in race problems.

Miss Bentham of Great Neck, Long Island, is one of the year's notable golf stars. And proud, too, no doubt, of being a Great Necker.

Hoover is the first President to have a desk telephone. He will probably receive an unusually sweet "excuse it, please" when he gets a wrong number.

General Sandino is tired and says he wants a long rest. The Marines tried hard to arrange one for him.

FACULTY MEMBERS TO DO GRADUATE STUDY

Misses Swayne and Goodman will study in the University of Washington at Seattle next year. Mr. Shirley will do graduate work in the University of Michigan. Mr. Lockhart will work on his master's degree at Baylor University. Mrs. Reeves will do the same in the Colorado State Teachers College at Greeley.

Miss Noyes will be on leave next year but she has not decided yet where she will work. Misses Lamb, Debo, and Barksdale are to be away this summer, but their plans are not yet formed.

TOOK NO CHANCES, BUT—
He brushed his teeth twice a day—with a nationally advertised toothpaste.

He wore his rubbers when it rained.

He slept with the windows open.

He stuck to a diet with plenty of fresh vegetables.

He relinquished his tonsils and traded in several worn-out glands.

He golfed—but never more than 18 holes at a time.

He got at least eight hours sleep every night.

He never smoked, drank or lost his temper.

He did his daily dozen daily.

He was all set to live to be a hundred.

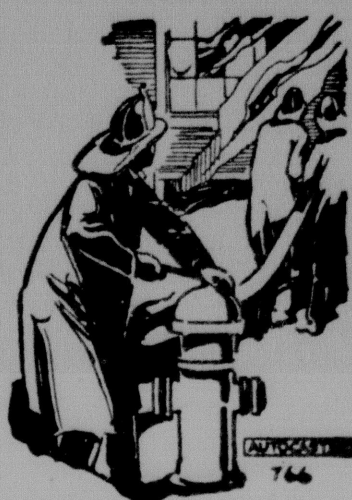

The funeral will be held next Wednesday. He is survived by 18 specialists, four health institutes, six gymnasiums and numerous manufacturers of health foods and antiseptics.

He had forgotten about trains at grade crossings.—Pullman Magazine.

San Francisco, Cal.—Rose Lombardi, nine-year-old girl, survived the highest temperature ever recorded—a fever of 112—during an illness of scarlet fever.

When the firemen call, dress for action, it is too late to think of insurance. The loss may be large—or the loss may be small—but a loss nevertheless unless you have your home and personal property well insured. Winter is the season of the year when fire losses are greatest. Putting off taking out a fire insurance policy is a gamble which no one can afford. Let us explain the economy which may be enjoyed in various kinds of policies.

W. T. SENIORS HONOR GUESTS AT BREAKFAST

AFFAIR SUNDAY MORNING GIVEN FOR SENIORS BY METHODIST LADIES.

The ladies of the Methodist Church honored the seniors with a breakfast in the dining room of the church Sunday morning. Miss Swisher was hostess. About fifty seniors, wives, friends, and special guests were present.

The table was decorated with roses and dolls. Place cards were black, bearing a diploma, II Timothy, 2:15. A rosebud on each grape fruit basket and a trail of red and white ribbon carried out further the color scheme and the theme.

Mr. Condron, the first speaker after Miss Swisher's verse of welcome, began the idea of pioneer trails, applied to W. T. and especially to the senior class. He likened the class to Kit Carson, who, beside his last campfire felt at home. Mr. Condron hoped that each senior at the end of his career would like the noble trail blazer feel well pleased with the trails he had cleared.

Miss Richardson developed further the idea of pioneering. She said she felt it the greatest compliment that had been paid her by people when they adjudged her to be "an old timer" in Canyon. W. T., she said, has preserved the pioneer's spirit of perseverance and resourcefulness.

President Hill expressed his appreciation of the work done by the two student secretaries in developing the religious life of the students, and hoped that other churches would follow their "trail."

Miss Lowes and Miss Debo made short talks in appreciation of the work done by seniors in the past four years. There was no doubt that Miss Debo's good opinion rested entirely on the fact that all seniors "had been freshmen." Miss Lowes said this was the biggest and best of the four senior breakfasts she had attended.

Between times Bishop Johnson kept things lively with a choice list of stories. This is one of the best: "The world, in overalls, to the graduate in cap and gown, 'What have you, my dear?' 'A. B.' she said. 'Come with me,' he replied, 'I'll teach you the rest of the alphabet.'"

Mrs. Green and Mrs. Page, and Mr. McDonald spoke briefly. The latter presented Emma Lou McKinney, who spoke in behalf of the class its pleasure at the honor paid its members and the value received from their experiences in the Methodist organizations in Canyon.

Champs in Boxing Are Determined Here Last Monday

The finals of the Intramural Boxing Tournament were held last Monday evening in the gym. The champions of last year met champions of this year.

In the feather weight Minard Stevens, this year's champion defeated Marion Higdon, last year's champion, in four fast, thrilling rounds. In the welter weight, H. C. Hill, this year's champion, was defeated by Pat Gerald, last year's champion, in a fast fight. As to the light weight David Lee, last year's champion fought to a draw with Elbert Gee. Later it was decided by the drawing of lots in David Lee's favor.

This is probably the last of the intramural sports of this year. The winners will have the opportunity to defend their titles next year and an excellent Boxing Tournament is looked forward to for next year.

FRY GIVEN FAREWELL LUNCHEON BY RED MEN

The Red Men had a luncheon Monday at the college cafeteria in honor of Mr. Tate Fry who leaves soon for Los Angeles where he will study under Dean Grabill this summer. At this time the boys presented Mr. Fry with a very pretty bill fold as a token of their appreciation of his work as sponsor of that organization this year.

Marjorie Walters Is Presented in Excellent Recital

As a culmination of her college training in interpretation under the direction of Miss Mary Morgan Brown, Miss Marjorie Walters was presented in her senior recital Tuesday afternoon of last week. The program was in many respects the most beautiful that has been given in the college this year. Miss Walters' repertoire shows a wide variety. The program was opened with a reading of "The Nightingale and The Rose," a romantic story in lyric prose by Oscar Wilde. This was followed by a humorous dialogue, "Confessions," by Conan Doyle. The reading of the portion scene from "Romeo and Juliet," was the most dramatic selection of the program. The program was brought to a finish by the interpretation of Riley's child story, "Bud's Fairy Tale."

Miss Walters was assisted by her sister, Nelle, on the violin. Miss Thelma McMinn was the accompanist for the violin solos. In her usual charming manner, Miss Walters played three numbers on the violin. These were: "Cavatone" by Mozart-Ries; "Ave Maria," by Bach-Gounod; and "Serenade," by Pieme.

Debate Features Chapel Program

The question for debate before the student body last Tuesday at the chapel hour was: Resolved, That co-education should be abolished in institutions of higher learning. Miss Montie Draper and Mr. Virgil Thomas upheld the affirmative side of the question and were strongly opposed by Miss Opal Coley and Mr. Cummings.

Although the chairman, Mr. Robert Hunt, stated that the main speeches were to be eight minutes, each, the student body was entertained for an entire hour by these famous debaters. Many students were quoted, and the debaters often did not even agree with their colleagues.

The negative won by a small vote.

SOFT BUT NOT SENSIBLE

Living as we do in an age of luxury and mechanical refinement much of the drudgery has been removed from our daily activities. Gas now propels us where as formerly legs did the job. Machines of wonderful complexity and uncanny power now replace the energies expended by hundreds of thousands of hands. Science has even invaded the home where are to be found the electric sweepers, washers, mangles, and ironers.

In short, service, reducing physical energy to a minimum, can be purchased. And as the richest nation on earth, that service is bought. A fair proportion of humanity rests more or less continuously in consequence thereof.

To live in the lap of even comparative luxury is gratifying to the senses, and if the human being were all brain the idea would be a magnificent one. But the fact remains that, despite our vaunted civilization and its labor-saving devices, man's body remains the same as it always was. Merely to clothe it, overfeed it, under-exercise it—as thousands are doing daily—is to shut one's eyes to the fixed law that the body requires real physical work and exercise quite as much as the stomach demands sufficient food if it is to give the best service and last the longest possible time.

Too many people absolutely disregard the work urge. "Why exert ourselves if we can pay to have some machine or some person do it for us?" they argue. But the point is that all the logic in the world will not overcome nature's necessity. It demands. And if it does not get, it flops. That is all there is to it—which is quite enough!

Men and women both were originally fabricated on the fundamental basis of the necessity of physical labor and its natural sequence—sweat. And the models haven't been changed either in substance or form since the Garden of Eden days.

Of course, you are not to change your office job for a ditch-digging one, but, on the other hand, muscles should be exercised daily. Put your body to work. Discover your muscles. Make your anatomy mean something more than frame upon which to hang clothes and hold up a brain. Get busy!

INVISIBLE REALITIES

By Dr. John Joseph Gaines

Once a very great editor assured a little girl about the reality of Santa Claus. He said in so many words that the most real things in this world are the things that children and men do not see.

It would be very difficult to find a sentence that holds more of a sublime truth.

We cannot see an electric current of 20,000 volts; yet it is there in all of its terrible reality.

No one has ever seen carbon monoxide gas. Who does not know of it and fear it?

The deadly spirit in alcohol is invisible. The clear liquid looks as innocent as distilled water; one cannot tell them apart, so far as looks are concerned. The smell, taste and effects on the human constitution go to make the spirit more realistic.

Human beings have learned of these stren, invisible realities, and how to evade their harmful effects, and also how to apply them to useful purposes. Almost every modern home now uses illuminating gas, which nobody has ever seen. One of the most deadly elements known, if it gets the upper hand.

Education prevents our enemies from getting the upper hand, and makes valued friends of them. It is only the ignorant and neglectful that suffer consequences. With proper training man can have dominion over all things; without it he is easily victimized.

The fully trained intelligent man, guards every portal against the invasion of the invisible foe, which is the kind that kills; the enemy that cannot be seen is very real, and is many times more dangerous than one we can see. The invisible enemy attacks from behind, as it were. The trained man sees all around him. God pity the man or woman, boy or girl that gropes in ignorance today!

FARM LIFE STILL LURES

Marion Talley, world famous, the cynosure of all eyes, the youngest prima donna ever to grace the stage of the great Metropolitan Opera House—

Marion Talley, possessed of wealth and fame—

Marion Talley, envied by farm girls, has made a firm decision to take up life on the farm and leave her career behind.

No more for her the glamour of bright lights, first nights, and the applause of the multitude.

Of her own accord, she is going with her family to operate a farm for the sake of happiness.

What a wonderful example for all the boys and girls who are on farms and feel that their opportunities are limited thereby. Marion Talley has tasted everything that the city has to offer, and has made her decision in the face of it all.

This strikes us as very significant in view of the decreasing farm population. It shows that the farm still has a definite lure—that always and ever people will be turning to the farm for the sake of health and happiness.

This action of Marion Talley is sure to have a tremendous influence in turning people's attention to the many advantages of life on the farmlands of America.

"SLOWER, PLEASE"

A certain gentleman of mature age, fortunate in the possession of two boys just returned from college for their mid-year vacation, accepted their invitation to join with them in a hockey game. He was fair, fat and fifty; and his exercise for the past two years up to that time had largely been taken in his high-powered car, with an occasional stroll over the golf course.

"I'll show these kids that Dad's still got the old stuff in him," he whispered to a friend as he boldly struck out on the smooth ice. And he did show them, too. He played a fine game and kept the admiring boys very much on their toes. He hadn't been an athlete for nothing. Most certainly not!

"But that evening Dad breathed a heavy sigh and two days later his earthly journey found its inevitable destination in a newly dug grave. Dad had merely permitted his enthusiasm to get the better of his body—and his body got the better of him! A sad story but a true one.

No, it cannot be done safely, this dropping back into violent exercise after a lapse of years of comparative inactivity. Neither men nor women have any right to assume that their bodies, and especially their hearts, can thus suddenly be thrown into high gear and run at a speed which nature intended only for younger people.

It is all right to have a youthful spirit but the average heart at fifty and even at forty is no longer young, and care must accordingly be exercised in exercising. Every one of middle age or over should politely respect this fact and decline sudden and sustained exertion of any kind.

Exercise? Most certainly. Keep in good physical condition by long brisk walks, golf, setting up exercises or any other form of mild exertion that strikes your fancy. But don't get stuck up about your prowess and assume a "just-as-young-as-I-used-to-be" attitude. In that case your head is playing a serious joke on the rest of you. And believe it or not, the rest of you matters very much in this business of living and long life.

ONLY ONE HEATH HEN STILL ALIVE

Boston.—Out of the flock of Heath Hens, once inhabiting Martha's Vineyard, only one bird is alive today, it was revealed by the State Department of Conservation. In the Spring of 1927 only 13 Heath Hens remained. Now only one can be found.

"Never in the history of ornithology," said Dr. Alfred O. Gross, who undertook the study of the Heath Hen's decline, "has a species been watched in its normal environments down to the very last individual. How long this bird will continue to live only time can answer.

"The death of this bird will also mean the death of its race. As long as it lives it will be observed and protected. This last bird is a plump male, its plumage is in perfect condition and there is every outward appearance that it is a perfectly healthy individual."

GOOD DAIRY BULLS
A SOUND INVESTMENT

College Station.—There are now 150 regularly organized dairy bull circles in Texas, and the number of registered bulls in these associations is 700, according to a recent estimate of J. L. Thomas, dairy specialist in the Extension Service. New circles are being formed practically every week, and good bulls, aside from those in circles, are being rapidly introduced into the growing dairy herds of the state, he says. Last year county agents reported more than 2,000 pure bred bulls, placed on farms, and during the last six years 5,085 registered dairy sires are shown to have been purchased by farmers or groups of farmers.

"The dairy business can be overdone in Texas," Mr. Thomas believes, "especially where farmers who are just learning expand the business too rapidly, buy too many high priced cows or fail to raise sufficient feed and pasture crops. But there is little danger of overdoing bull circles for this means better cows, cheaper milk and higher profits at the least expense.

In buying dairy bulls he suggests that only those from tested herds be bought so that the production records of dams be known. Otherwise the buyer is forced to take a chance as to the increased production of the daughters. It is not necessary to run such a risk for sires from proved dams are available, and although they are usually double in price they are worth the difference.

SOFT BUT NOT SENSIBLE

Living as we do in an age of luxury and mechanical refinement much of the drudgery has been removed from our daily activities. Gas now propels us where as formerly legs did the job. Machines of wonderful complexity and uncanny power now replace the energies expended by hundreds of thousands of hands. Science has even invaded the home where are to be found the electric sweepers, washers, mangles, and ironers.

In short, service, reducing physical energy to a minimum, can be purchased. And as the richest nation on earth, that service is bought. A fair proportion of humanity rests more or less continuously in consequence thereof.

To live in the lap of even comparative luxury is gratifying to the senses, and if the human being were all brain the idea would be a magnificent one. But the fact remains that, despite our vaunted civilization and its labor-saving devices, man's body remains the same as it always was. Merely to clothe it, overfeed it, under-exercise it—as thousands are doing daily—is to shut one's eyes to the fixed law that the body requires real physical work and exercise quite as much as the stomach demands sufficient food if it is to give the best service and last the longest possible time.

Too many people absolutely disregard the work urge. "Why exert ourselves if we can pay to have some machine or some person do it for us?" they argue. But the point is that all the logic in the world will not overcome nature's necessity. It demands. And if it does not get it, flops. That is all there is to it—which is quite enough!

Men and women both were originally fabricated on the fundamental basis of the necessity of physical labor and its natural sequence—sweat. And the models haven't been changed either in substance or form since the Garden of Eden days.

Of course, you are not to change your office job for a ditch-digging one, but, on the other hand, muscles should be exercised daily. Put your body to work. Discover your muscles. Make your anatomy mean something more than frame upon which to hang clothes and hold up a brain. Get busy!

INVISIBLE REALITIES

By Dr. John Joseph Gaines

Once a very great editor assured a little girl about the reality of Santa Claus. He said, in so many words that the most real things in this world are the things that children and men do not see.

It would be very difficult to find a sentence that holds more of sublime truth.

We cannot see an electric current of 20,000 volts; yet it is there in all of its terrible reality.

No one has ever seen carbon monoxide gas. Who does not know of it and fear it?

The deadly spirit in alcohol is invisible. The clear liquid looks as innocent as distilled water; one cannot tell them apart, so far as looks are concerned. The smell, taste and effects on the human constitution go to make the spirit more realistic.

Human beings have learned of these stren, invisible realities, and how to evade their harmful effects, and also how to apply them to useful purposes. Almost every modern home now uses illuminating gas, which nobody has ever seen. One of the most deadly elements known, if it gets the upper hand.

Education prevents our enemies from getting the upper hand, and makes valued friends of them. It is only the ignorant and neglectful that suffer consequences. With proper training man can have dominion over all things; without it he is easily victimized.

The fully trained intelligent man, guards every portal against the invasion of the invisible foe, which is the kind that kills; the enemy that cannot be seen is very real, and is many times more dangerous than one we can see. The invisible enemy attacks from behind, as it were. The trained man sees all around him. God pity the man or woman, boy or girl that gropes in ignorance today!

FARM LIFE STILL LURES

Marion Talley, world famous, the cynosure of all eyes, the youngest prima donna ever to grace the stage of the great Metropolitan Opera House—

Marion Talley, possessed of wealth and fame—

Marion Talley, envied by farm girls, has made a firm decision to take up life on the farm and leave her career behind.

No more for her the glamour of bright lights, first nights, and the applause of the multitude.

Of her own accord, she is going with her family to operate a farm for the sake of happiness.

What a wonderful example for all the boys and girls who are on farms and feel that their opportunities are limited thereby. Marion Talley has tasted everything that the city has to offer, and has made her decision in the face of it all.

This strikes us as very significant in view of the decreasing farm population. It shows that the farm still has a definite lure—that always and ever people will be turning to the farm for the sake of health and happiness.

This action of Marion Talley is sure to have a tremendous influence in turning people's attention to the many advantages of life on the farmlands of America.

"SLOWER, PLEASE"

A certain gentleman of mature age, fortunate in the possession of two boys just returned from college for their mid-year vacation, accepted their invitation to join with them in a hockey game. He was fair, fat and fifty; and his exercise for the past two years up to that time had largely been taken in his high-powered car, with an occasional stroll over the golf course.

"I'll show these kids that Dad's still got the old stuff in him," he whispered to a friend as he boldly struck out on the smooth ice. And he did show them, too. He played a fine game and kept the admiring boys very much on their toes. He hadn't been an athlete for nothing. Most certainly not!

But that evening Dad breathed a heavy sigh and two days later his earthly journey found its inevitable destination in a newly dug grave. Dad had merely permitted his enthusiasm to get the better of his body—and his body got the better of him! A sad story but a true one.

No, it cannot be done safely, this dropping back into violent exercise after a lapse of years of comparative inactivity. Neither men nor women have any right to assume that their bodies, and especially their hearts, can thus suddenly be thrown into high gear and run at a speed which nature intended only for younger people.

It is all right to have a youthful spirit but the average heart at fifty and even at forty is no longer young, and care must accordingly be exercised in exercising. Everyone of middle age or over should politely respect this fact and decline sudden and sustained exertion of any kind.

Exercise? Most certainly. Keep in good physical condition by long brisk walks, golf, setting up exercises or any other form of mild exertion that strikes your fancy. But don't get stuck up about your prowess and assume a "just-as-young-as-I-used-to-be" attitude. In that case your head is playing a serious joke on the rest of you. And believe it or not, the rest of you matters very much in this business of living and long life.

ONLY ONE HEATH HEN STILL ALIVE

Boston.—Out of the flock of Heath Hens, once inhabiting Martha's Vineyard, only one bird is alive today, it was revealed by the State Department of Conservation. In the Spring of 1927 only 13 Heath Hens remained. Now only one can be found.

"Never in the history of ornithology," said Dr. Alfred O. Gross, who undertook the study of the Heath Hen's decline, "has a species been watched in its normal environments down to the very last individual. How long this bird will continue to live only time can answer.

"The death of this bird will also mean the death of its race. As long as it lives it will be observed and protected. This last bird is a plump male, its plumage is in perfect condition and there is every outward appearance that it is a perfectly healthy individual."

GOOD DAIRY BULLS
A SOUND INVESTMENT

College Station.—There are now 150 regularly organized dairy bull circles in Texas, and the number of registered bulls in these associations is 700, according to a recent estimate of J. L. Thomas, dairy specialist in the Extension Service. New circles are being formed practically every week, and good bulls, aside from those in circles, are being rapidly introduced into the growing dairy herds of the state, he says. Last year county agents reported more than 2,000 pure bred bulls, placed on farms, and during the last six years 5,085 registered dairy sires are shown to have been purchased by farmers or groups of farmers.

"The dairy business can be overdone in Texas," Mr. Thomas believes, "especially where farmers who are just learning expand the business too rapidly, buy too many high priced cows or fail to raise sufficient feed and pasture crops. But there is little danger of overdoing bull circles for this means better cows, cheaper milk and higher profits at the least expense.

In buying dairy bulls he suggests that only those from tested herds be bought so that the production records of dams be known. Otherwise the buyer is forced to take a chance as to the increased production of the daughters. It is not necessary to run such a risk for sires from proved dams are available, and although they are usually double in price they are worth the difference.

Hinkle Elected To Head College Exes Here Last Night

Rededicating its services to the West Texas State Teachers College and laying plans for concentrated activity, the Ex-Students Association of the school met here last night in its annual banquet in Cousins Hall. More than 150 former students of the school, representing classes from 1911 through 1929, were present.

Olin E. Hinkle, editor of the Pampa Daily News, was elected president to succeed J. Evetts Haley, field secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Both Mr. Hinkle and Mr. Haley are members of the class of 1925.

The banquet was planned around a theme of merchandising and selling, with the graduates and the facilities of the College as the commodity to be sold.

Resolutions to increase the annual dues of the organization to $2 a year and to employ a part-time secretary to look after the interests of ex-students, were passed unanimously at the meeting last night. Plans contemplating formation of a teacher-placing bureau to co-operate with the bureau of public service at the College were made a part of the general scheme to vitalize the organization.

Talks were made by I. B. Caruth, superintendent of Canyon High School, who was toastmaster at the banquet; Jim Webb; J. A. Hill, president of the College; R. P. Jarrett, dean of the College and "daddy" of the Class of 1927; Evetts Haley, Olin E. Hinkle, Edward Gerald, Jr., Mrs. Tommie Montfort, and Emmett Hazlewood. Miss Bessie Perkins, violinist, and Miss Marie Stalcup, soprano, furnished musical numbers on the program. Miss Dolphia Carmack of Tulsa gave a reading.

Seniors of High School Awarded Diplomas Saturday

Saturday night marked the end of high school days for the seniors of the high school department of the training school when fifty members of the senior class received their diplomas. Under the painstaking sponsorship of Miss Maude Noyes the class has completed a successful year's work and an exciting week's entertainment.

Thursday, May 24, was senior class day and was featured by various exercises, amusing and serious. The class is presenting to the school a statue for the niche on the third floor of the education building, and though the statue did not arrive in time for the presentation, the space was dedicated. In the afternoon a faculty take-off and an impressive burial service was held on the campus during which the shady past of the members of the senior class was forever laid to rest.

Saturday evening's program was featured by an address by Registrar D. A. Shirley. Mr. F. E. Savage, superintendent of the training school, presented diplomas to fifty gray-gowned seniors as they marched across the stage, and Miss Jennie C. Ritchie awarded the honors to the highest ranking boy and girl of the class. Ernest Cabe and Louise Holgate were the winners of these awards and scholarships.

"NANCY ANN" IS PRESENTED BY SENIOR CLASS

EXCELLENT CHARACTERIZATION FEATURES SENIOR PLAY GIVEN HERE.

One of the best and most interesting Senior plays in the history of Senior Classes was given by the graduating class of this institution Thursday evening when "Nancy Ann" was presented to a packed house in the auditorium of the Education building. Marked talent was shown in every role, and every character was a distinct personage. The college quartet furnished music between acts.

Pauline Stevenson in the title role did a commendable piece of work as the niece of four aunts of high social standing. As Nancy Ann, she had all the traits necessary for an almost perfect portrayal of the character. In the beginning of the play she was seen as a timid awkward girl totally under the domination of three married aunts and a spinster aunt who, although wishing to do the correct thing, really act against their niece's nature to the extent that it causes her to revolt. Nancy Ann has a cherished desire to be an actress, and keeps a picture of Sidney Brian, the actor and theatrical producer in the bureau drawer, where it is discovered by the aunts at a very inopportune time.

J. D. Gamble did an equally good piece of work as the actor and theatrical producer. He wished to be taken as a gruff and independent gentleman who knew exactly how to rid the office of "theatrical aspirants." He ended by falling in love with Nancy Ann. Perhaps the most amusing and interesting part of the entire play was the meeting of Sidney and Nancy Ann in his office after she was supposed to be out of the building.

The four aunts, Mrs. Henry Wade Chiverick, Mrs. Rodman Webster, Mrs. Stanley Flemming and Miss Van Cuyler, which were played by Marjorie Walters, Agnes Moore, Frances Croson, and Dalma Fry, were very realistic. Four aristocratic aunts of their separate and combined temperaments could not have done their parts to more perfection.

Lula Mae Irons, Arless O'Keefe, and Marie Stalcup were chorus girls who were in search of a job. Lula Mae and Marie were very adept at their parts. The fact that Marie could act as a slangy show girl was a surprise to the audience. Lula Mae was equally good in her manner of addressing Nancy Ann about the dress, and her approval of the other girl, Arless. Arless was a show girl of a little better type than the others; she was ready to help beginners, and did her best to land a position for Nancy Ann. She acted her part especially well and seemed to form a bond between the audience and herself which made it appreciate her actions toward Nancy Ann.

A bouquet of roses, or any kind of flowers, should be handed to Travis Shaw because of his work as Ray Dennis, publicity manager of Sidney Brian. He was Dennis in every sense of the word. He admired the pretty girls, and tried to do all in his power to get them a job, while he failed to appreciate the beginner and did everything to discourage them. He went so far in his discernment and discouragement of Nancy Ann that he caused her to run away from the office. His best acting came in the scene when the aunts came in search of Nancy Ann, and he had to keep them in the outer office.

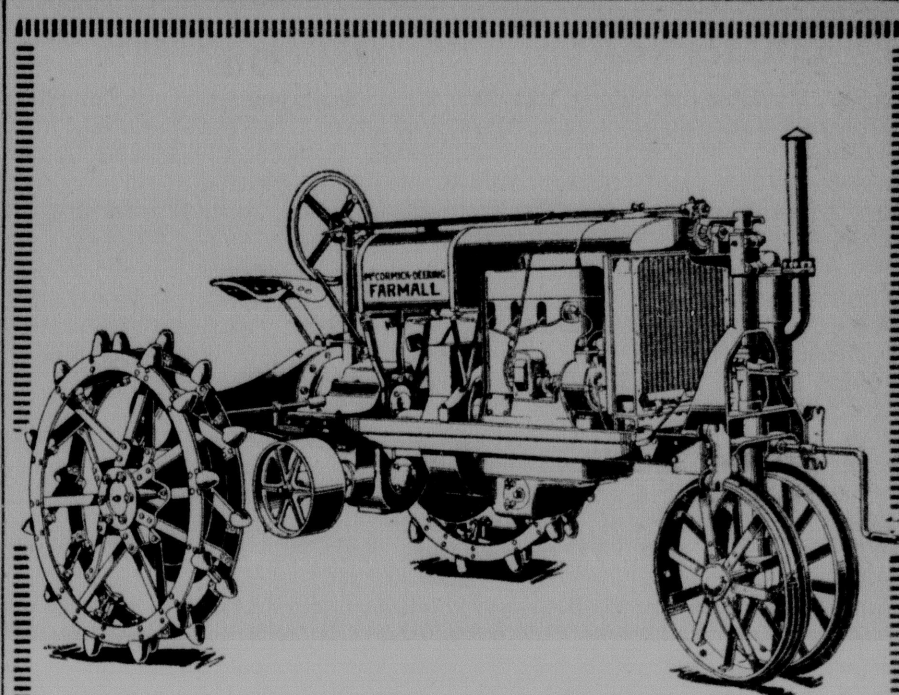

Lois Goodrich, Arthur Milton, George Heath, Delbert Lowes, H. DeWitt Landis and Cleatice Crump played the minor roles which filled up the little places and made the play a success.

Hinkle Elected To Head College Exes Here Last Night

Rededicating its services to the West Texas State Teachers College and laying plans for concentrated activity, the Ex-Students Association of the school met here last night in its annual banquet in Cousins Hall. More than 150 former students of the school, representing classes from 1911 through 1929, were present.

Olin E. Hinkle, editor of the Pampa Daily News, was elected president to succeed J. Evetts Haley, field secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Both Mr. Hinkle and Mr. Haley are members of the class of 1925.

The banquet was planned around a theme of merchandising and selling, with the graduates and the facilities of the College as the commodity to be sold.

Resolutions to increase the annual dues of the organization to $2 a year and to employ a part-time secretary to look after the interests of ex-students, were passed unanimously at the meeting last night. Plans contemplating formation of a teacher-placing bureau to co-operate with the bureau of public service at the College were made a part of the general scheme to vitalize the organization.

Talks were made by I. B. Caruth, superintendent of Canyon High School, who was toastmaster at the banquet; Jim Webb; J. A. Hill, president of the College; R. P. Jarrett, dean of the College and "daddy" of the Class of 1927; Evetts Haley, Olin E. Hinkle, Edward Gerald, Jr., Mrs. Tommie Montfort, and Emmett Hazlewood. Miss Bessie Perkins, violinist, and Miss Marie Stalcup, soprano, furnished musical numbers on the program. Miss Dolphia Carmack of Tulsa gave a reading.

Seniors of High School Awarded Diplomas Saturday

Saturday night marked the end of high school days for the seniors of the high school department of the training school when fifty members of the senior class received their diplomas. Under the painstaking sponsorship of Miss Maude Noyes the class has completed a successful year's work and an exciting week's entertainment.

Thursday, May 24, was senior class day and was featured by various exercises, amusing and serious. The class is presenting to the school a statue for the niche on the third floor of the education building, and though the statue did not arrive in time for the presentation, the space was dedicated. In the afternoon a faculty take-off and an impressive burial service was held on the campus during which the shady past of the members of the senior class was forever laid to rest.

Saturday evening's program was featured by an address by Registrar D. A. Shirley. Mr. F. E. Savage, superintendent of the training school, presented diplomas to fifty gray-gowned seniors as they marched across the stage, and Miss Jennie C. Ritchie awarded the honors to the highest ranking boy and girl of the class. Ernest Cabel and Louise Holgate were the winners of these awards and scholarships.

"NANCY ANN" IS PRESENTED BY SENIOR CLASS

EXCELLENT CHARACTERIZATION FEATURES SENIOR PLAY GIVEN HERE.

One of the best and most interesting Senior plays in the history of Senior Classes was given by the graduating class of this institution Thursday evening when "Nancy Ann" was presented to a packed house in the auditorium of the Education building. Marked talent was shown in every role, and every character was a distinct personage. The college quartet furnished music between acts.

Pauline Stevenson in the title role did a commendable piece of work as the niece of four aunts of high social standing. As Nancy Ann, she had all the traits necessary for an almost perfect portrayal of the character. In the beginning of the play she was seen as a timid awkward girl totally under the domination of three married aunt and a spinster aunt who, although wishing to do the correct thing, really act against their niece's nature to the extent that it causes her to revolt. Nancy Ann has a cherished desire to be an actress, and keeps a picture of Sidney Brian, the actor and theatrical producer in the bureau drawer, where it is discovered by the aunts at a very inopportune time. J. D. Gamble did an equally good piece of work as the actor and theatrical producer. He wished to be taken as a gruff and independent gentleman who knew exactly how to rid the office of "theatrical aspirants." He ended by falling in love with Nancy Ann. Perhaps the most amusing and interesting part of the entire play was the meeting of Sidney and Nancy Ann in his office after she was supposed to be out of the building. The four aunts, Mrs. Henry Wade Chiverick, Mrs. Rodman Webster, Mrs. Stanley Flemming and Miss Van Cuyler, which were played by Marjorie Walters, Agnes Moore, Frances Croson, and Dalma Fry, were very realistic. Four aristocratic aunts of their separate and combined temperaments could not have done their parts to more perfection.

Lula Mae Irons, Arless O'Keefe, and Marie Stalcup were chorus girls who were in search of a job. Lula Mae and Marie were very adept at their parts. The fact that Marie could act as a slangy show girl was a surprise to the audience. Lula Mae was equally good in her manner of addressing Nancy Ann about the dress, and her approval of the other girl, Arless. Arless was a show girl of a little better type than the others; she was ready to help beginners, and did her best to land a position for Nancy Ann. She acted her part especially well and seemed to form a bond between the audience and herself which made it appreciate her actions toward Nancy Ann.

A bouquet of roses, or any kind of flowers, should be handed to Travis Shaw because of his work as Ray Dennis, publicity manager of Sidney Brian. He was Dennis in every sense of the word. He admired the pretty girls, and tried to do all in his power to get them a job, while he failed to appreciate the beginner and did everything to discourage them. He went so far in his discernment and discouragement of Nancy Ann that he caused her to run away from the office. His best acting came in the scene when the aunts came in search of Nancy Ann, and he had to keep them in the outer office.

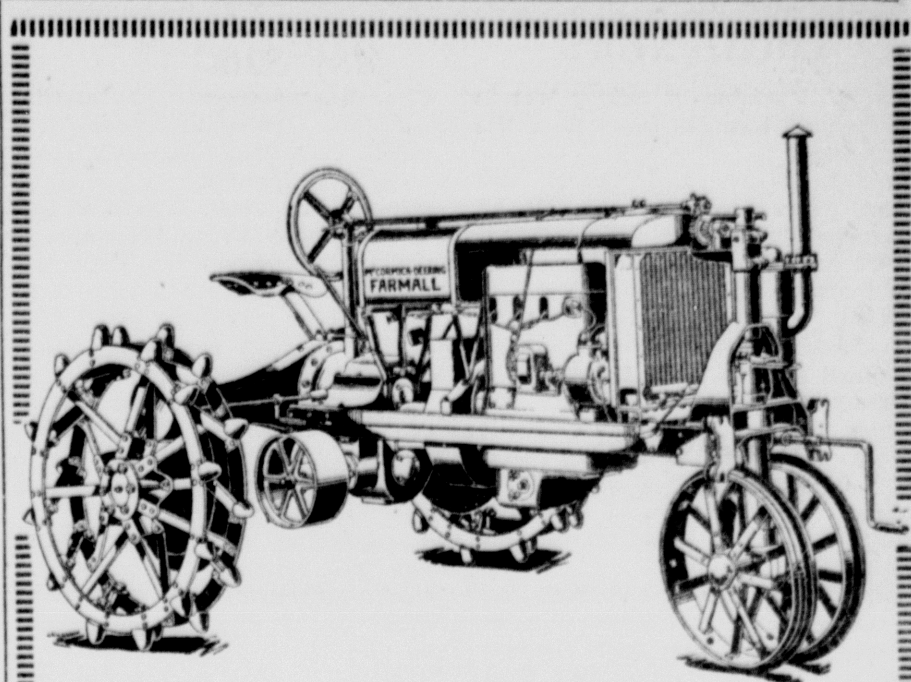

Lois Goodrich, Arthur Milton, George Heath, Delbert Lowes, H. DeWitt Landis and Cleatie Crump played the minor roles which filled up the little places and made the play a success.

"HURRY WITH THE SERVICE CAR, THE OIL BROKE DOWN" DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU

STRANDED five miles from nowhere because the oil wouldn't do its job! Has that happened to you? If it has, the chances are that you were not particular the last time you had the crankcase drained — or perhaps you ran too long without changing the oil. This will be a slack summer for service cars if motorists will remember two things: first, to change oil regularly, and secondly, to use only a brand of oil which they know from their own experience or the experience of others will stand up under the most trying conditions of motor operation.

You can depend upon any oil which has the backing of the Continental Oil Company. These are the brands which have been tried and tested — in the laboratory and on the road. They lubricate thoroughly, protect every moving part and stand up under intense heat.

Ask for these brands at leading service stations and garages.

Conoco Amalie is 100% Pennsylvania Oil — refined from premium crudes by a special process. Universally recommended by auto motive engineers and lubrication experts.

Through exhaustive laboratory and road tests it has demonstrated its ability to lubricate properly under the most trying conditions of motor operation.

FELT BAD AFTER EATING

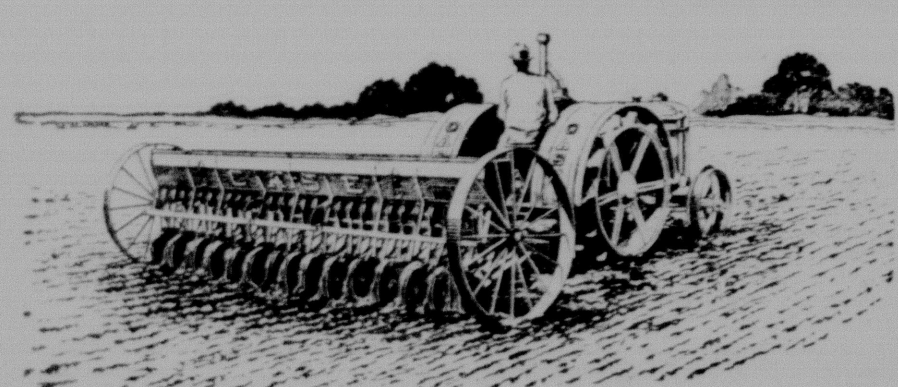

"FOUR YEARS AGO, I suffered with heartburn and bilious indigestion. Whatever I ate disagreed with me. Gas on my stomach made me very uncomfortable. My tongue was coated and my color was bad. I needed a good laxative, and so my mother-in-law gave me some Black-Draught and told me to take it. I found it helped me very much, so I bought it for myself. Seems it was the very thing I needed. It is a fine family remedy, and I use it when I need something for constipation. I also give Black-Draught to my children whenever they need something for colds or upset stomachs. Our whole family takes Black-Draught."

Get bigger Profits with the CASE DRILL

GET A CASE GRAIN DRILL and control your planting. Give every kernel the chance to start right. You can save seed, get a more vigorous stand without skips and bunches, and boost your yield the Case way.

The Case Cone Type Double Run Feed delivers the seed evenly—accurately—continuously. The Case Fluted Force Feed is equally efficient. The gears and feeds are "run in"—planting mechanism is factory assembled, tested and adjusted.

Seed passes smoothly down from the hopper right into the bottom of furrows. Case single and double disk furrow-openers are practically indestructible, with chilled, dust-proof bearings.

Planting depth is easily controlled—uniform covering is certain. The result is prompt germination and even growth.

The Case Grain Drill is of low, under-slung construction—convenient to fill—easy to operate—light in draft. Works well with horse or tractor.

We'll be glad to show you this Case Drill that increases yields and boosts profits. Come in today.

needed flesh—to make the blood richer—take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By restoring the normal action of the stomach and other deranged organs and functions, it builds the flesh up to a safe and healthy standard—promptly, pleasantly and naturally. The weak, emaciated, thin, pale and puny, are made strong, plump, round, rosy and robust, also pimples and blotches are driven away. All druggists.

Read this comment: "I was all run-down from having indigestion, nothing I ate agreed with me, just felt like a lump, would not digest, and caused me a lot of distress. This Season

Has become known as a Tornado and Hail period. At this season of the year the Twister's Terrifying Threat often becomes a reality laying waste thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of property and snuffing out many lives. Tornadoes and Hail are beyond the control of man, and the only defense is insurance to pay for the damage they cause. Almost every day the newspapers carry big headlines with reference to the latest disaster.

No locality is exempt—yours may be next. Anywhere in this country—windstorms and hailstorms can and do destroy millions of dollars' worth of property. Each year adds to the list of places which "could never" have a destructive wind storm—and did. Windstorms and hail storm insurance rates are so low that that it is not worth the risk to be without it. Let us tell you how little it costs to protect yourself from loss through damage done by wind and hail to home business and property.

SUSI'S AIRSHIP. OTHER AIR NEWS. $200,000,000 A YEAR. THE KING RETURNS.

Susi, female gorilla, passenger on the Graf Zeppelin, interests the crowd more than the real lady passenger.

Susi slept or rested calmly in her cage, through all the high wind and buffeting.

Proud man thinks, "Poor Susi, she did not even know she was floating through the clouds in an airship. Man set her sailing, she had nothing to say about it."

What about us, Susi's second cousins? Not one in 10,000 white men realize that he is afloat in space, on an airship, the earth. God set us floating, as Susi's owners set her flying.

It's a wonderful airship that we inhabit, heavier than if made of solid steel, whirling round and round, its slowest speed 1,000 miles an hour, on its axis, its speed around the sun more than 1,500,000 miles a day, 60,000 miles an hour, 1,000 miles a minute.

Ours is a real airship going off through space, somewhere, with the sun. And we know and think as little about our real journey as Susi knew and thought about her trip. Don't despise Susi.

Human nature is fundamentally good with all its fighting and slaughtering. The French hesitated to let the Zeppelin fly over French territory—too many opportunities for taking photographs, useful in later wars, perhaps.

But when the big ship was in trouble, French soldiers were sent to help, French landing fields and hangars were offered, and at this hour, French and German mechanics are working side by side, putting the big dirigible in order.

Colonel Lindbergh announces regular mail service between New York and Buenos Ayres in eighty hours. Later the line will be extended and Lindbergh will start the line, as pilot. Marriage, evidently, will not moderate his flying.

Those that oppose the debenture scheme for "farm relief" announce with horror that the "farm bounty plan" MIGHT cost the Treasury $200,000,000 a year. That wouldn't be much if it gave genuine farm relief.

The trouble is that the "debenture" or bounty plan would add many millions to profits of middlemen who do all the exporting and little if any the bounty would reach the farmers.

King George has returned to his favorite residence, Windsor Castle, with years of life promised by doctors.

Loyal subjects turned out to cheer their king.

Newspapers print his picture headed "Long to Reign Over Us."

The idea that men do not want to be ruled is a mistake. To be ruled is exactly what they DO want, and to be freed from responsibility of self rule.

It is painful for a dog to walk on its hind legs, painful for human beings to rule themselves and think for themselves.

Preaches Good Of Sargon, To Friends

Since taking Sargon I have felt in better health than in the last five years.

"My stomach was in such an upset condition that most everything I ate soured instead of digesting properly. I would have such bloating pains after each meal that I hated to eat. About twelve years ago I had a fall, injuring my hip and knee, and I have been troubled with rheumatism in my joints ever since.

MRS. LULA E. PETERSON

"An inactive liver caused me to be constipated and I was continually taking laxatives. I had many a restless night from all this suffering and would be as tired in the mornings as though I had never gone to bed. Nothing I took helped me.

"Sargon made me feel like a different woman. My appetite has come back and I enjoy my meals. My stomach is soothed and my digestion improved so I don't suffer bad effects after eating. The rheumatism disappeared and I rest much better at night. I get up in the morning feeling refreshed and full of life and energy.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills toned up my liver and rid me of constipation in a natural manner. My whole system is reconditioned and filled with new health.

"Sargon has helped me so remarkably that I am preaching to all my friends about its benefits and will continue to praise this wonderful medicine every chance I get."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. Lula E. Peterson, highly respected resident of 7814 Sherman St., Houston. Mrs. Peterson is a member of the Royal Neighbors society and also belongs to the Baptist church.

Eubanks Will Be '30 Tennis Captain

Wayne Eubanks has been elected captain of the tennis team for the coming year. Mr. Eubanks is completing his third year at W. T. and as an outstanding tennis player he is particularly fitted for this position. Eubanks is better known as "Preach," as Eubanks is better known, an excellent tennis player, but he is an outstanding debater, having represented W. T. in a number of debates.

The tennis team this year has made a good record under McCarty as captain. The team won the meet at Roswell, obtained second rating in the Great Plains Meet, and was eliminated by the winners in the T. I. A. A. All of this year's men will be back next year and a successful year is hoped for.

New Relics Added To Collection of History Society

Through the assistance of R. C. Burns and C. H. Park of Lubbock, the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society has recently added materially to its collection of branding irons and household articles representative of the pioneer age.

Recently these two men, accompanied by J. Evetts Haley, made a trip to San Saba and Austin, gathering materials along the way. From Mr. Wylie Puckett of Lubbock came two old fashioned flatirons; one of these was named "sensible" and was patented in 1908; this is an asbestos lined iron. The other iron is called a "Dove Sad Iron" and is of a type frequently seen even now. These with an old type waffle iron, were placed with the early household relics.

To the tool collection was added an old brace, typical of the first combination brace and bits which were made.

From Dee Boren, for many years a rancher of Garza County, came many additions to the Historical Society Brand Collection which is rapidly becoming one of the largest of the Southwest. With these were the D and E branding irons used in the DE brand, first registered in Fisher County in 1897 and brought to Garza in 1900. The Bar iron used for making the X of the XIT brand which was started on the Clear Fork of the Brazos in Fisher County in 1875 by John Gough and later bought by the Moores of Garza County, is also in the brand collection with the T and Z of the same brand.

Other famous branding irons which are in the collection at Canyon include the Diamond Tail, T-Anchor, Rockingchair, JA, JJ, HCS of Hank Smith of Crosby County, the XIT of the Capitol Syndicate, the TM of T. M. Montgomery, the —N— of Crosby and dozens of others, each reminiscent of a life that is rapidly passing.

A brief history of each brand is recorded in the files of the Society.

To Market! To Market!

Remember the old nursery rhyme: "To market to market to buy a fat pig — and home again, home again, dancing a jig!"

There's a reason for that nursery rhyme! Since our pre-historic ancestors laid in the day's provisions by hunting the dinosaur, meat has been the foundation of the housewife's menu.

But dinosaurs are out of date, and we no longer are forced to hunt for meat. Our meat shops offer a variety of fresh meats every day. Those meats have been prepared, by sanitary methods, for your table.

Canyon housewives can be assured that they are getting fresh meat the year around—in warm days as well as cold.

Our meat markets are unusually modern and up-to-date. As provisioners for your table, they are giving you conscientious service.

New Marriage Law
Becomes Effective
on the 16th of June

The new marriage license law recently passed by the Texas Legislature, which becomes effective on June 16, reads as follows:

Article 4605-A. For the purpose of ascertaining all facts required under the statutes, the county clerk, at the time the license is applied for, shall examine the applicant or applicants for the license under oath as to age and residence, which shall be reduced to writing by the county clerk, and subscribed to by the applicant or applicants. In case either party is absent when application is made an affidavit shall be made by person other than the contracting party as to the age and residence of the absent party. Said affidavit to be filed in the county clerk's office.

Article 4605-B. Application for license shall be made at least three days and not more than 30 days before the license shall be issued. Immediately upon receipt of an application of a license, the county clerk shall have recorded in a book kept for the purpose and marked "Notice of Intention to Marry," and after the expiration of three and not more than 30 days after the signing of the notice of intention to marry, the county clerk may issue the said license.

Article 4604-C. Before the county clerk shall issue a marriage license, the man shall produce a certificate from a reputable licensed physician to show that he is free from venereal disease.

Catalogs Ready for Courses By Mail

The copy, for the 1929-30 Correspondence Bulletin of the West Texas State Teachers College went to the printers this week and will be ready for distribution within a few weeks.

During the past year the Canyon College has had 382 men and women from all parts of Texas enrolled for work of this type. Among them were lawyers, business men, housewives, teachers, ministers and students temporarily out of college or high school.

Fifty students were enrolled in extension classes conducted off the campus by members of the regular college faculty.

JUNIOR B. Y. P. U. GIVES PARTY FOR MISS MILLER

A surprise party was given Monday afternoon for Miss Eleanor Miller at the home of Mrs. W. P. Bishop by members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. Miss Miller, who is one of the leaders of the organization, is leaving soon for her home.

After a short business meeting a social was enjoyed by the guests. The amusements consisted of games and story-telling. Miss Miller was given a shower of packages. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

TEXAS WOMEN BATTLE
KITCHEN DRUDGERY

College Station—Drudgery is the foe of the housewife, and particularly of the farm woman who not only is charged with ordinary household cares, but who often has in addition the responsibility of conducting one or more of the minor farm enterprises, such as poultry raising and dairying and gardening. Household management on the farm is a difficult art at best, but when the farm wife's work shop, the kitchen, is inconveniently arranged and lacking in most of the labor saving devices of the day, the task becomes almost hopeless. Thousands of mothers are broken in body and spirit and rendered unfit to minister to the needs of the family because of drudgery made necessary because of the lack of running water in the home, tables of incorrect height, abominable cook stoves and the like.

These are some of the conclusions drawn by home demonstration officials as a result of years of study of the problem in farming sections all over the state, and this has prompted the state-wide program of kitchen improvement in recent years. Thousands of farm kitchens were made light and airy and convenient in the six annual kitchen improvement contests held a few years ago, and that the program is still being followed may be judged by the fact that nearly 2,000 farm kitchens are made over each year through the efforts of county home demonstration agents.

It is demonstrated by home agents that water may be piped into any farm kitchen with very little expense, and that even an elevated water barrel just outside the door with a pipe and faucet inside is a great saver of steps. By actual measurement it has been shown that many farm women walk a mile or more about the kitchen in cooking one meal, all due to having the tables, cupboards, sink and stove in the wrong places! Likewise it has many times been shown that a few dollars invested in a window may transform a dingy, dark hole of a kitchen into a light room worthy of the woman who spends more than half her time there.

Last year home demonstration agents reported 183 women acquiring hand washing machines and 423 power washers; 115 fireless cookers; 564 kitchen sinks; 103 power vacuum cleaners; 821 kitchen cabinets; 839 electric or gas-line irons; 575 iceless refrigerators; and 2860 other labor saving devices.

ANOTHER EDISON?
Governors of many states are co-operating with Thomas A. Edison to help him find his successor. The great inventor, after half a century of work in which he revolutionized modern life, is seeking a youth of unusual capabilities who may perhaps be able to continue the work he has so well started.

To the high school boy who gives the best answers to one of his questionnaires, Edison offers a free college scholarship. One boy from each state, the one considered the possessor of the highest ability in scientific subjects, will be given a free trip in August to Mr. Edison's Orange, N. J. laboratories, where the questionnaire will be presented to him. Each of these boys will be entertained and made a gift of an Edison radio-phonograph.

We doubt that another Edison will be found. This miracle worker is unique. Yet we have no doubt much rare talent will be discovered in the search, and several promising youths will be given an impetus that may result in new benefits to humanity.

Therefore this enterprise is more than commendable, it is a particularly lovely gesture of a man much beloved, revered and admired—"another" of whom, however, we fear cannot be found so easily.

German Relics Are Given by Government to Local Post

A large shipment of German war trophies has been received by Madison Daugherty from the U. S. government, which are donated to the Palo Duro Post of the American Legion. The trophies consist of a number of guns captured in the world war from the German soldiers.

A display window of the News will be used next week in order to show the people some of the weapons used by the Germans against the American soldiers.

THREE HOMES ARE VICTIMS OF ROBBERS

Recently three houses have been broken into and valuables have been taken. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sternberg was entered from the back, their bedroom was entered and money and a purse were the only things taken. They were unaware that anything had happened until the next morning. Then they found that the money was missing and found the purse on the table and beside it was a hunting license belonging to Harvey Cash.

The house of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cash was entered also. The house was not locked. It was plain by the amount of mud left on the floor that the thieves had entered from the back. They came thru the kitchen, dining room, hall and then into the bedroom where Mr. and Mrs. Cash were sleeping. Although slight noises had awakened them they judged that it was nothing to be alarmed about and did not investigate. The next morning when Mr. Cash arose and started to dress, his trousers were missing and a search revealed them on the table in the kitchen. Only money was taken, keys and other objects being left. The only clue to the thievery was that the tracks showed them to be rather small children, supposedly boys.

Because of the similarity between the robberies and the fact that Mr. Cash's hunting license was found on the Sternberg table it is believed that the ones who broke into one house broke into the other.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McElroy was not entered but the back screen had been cut, and for some reason they did not go in.

Miss Opal Dutton of Panhandle visited with Miss Lillian Donnell here Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Daniel of Amarillo were here yesterday for the banquet of ex-students of the college.

Miss Veda Swafford, home demonstration agent of Collingsworth County, visited friends here yesterday. Miss Swafford also attended the ex-student banquet.

W. H. Younger, superintendent of the Tulla public schools, visited in Canyon yesterday to attend the commencement exercises at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reid of Dumas attended the ex-students banquet at the college last night. Mr. and Mrs. Reid have only recently moved to Dumas from New Mexico.

Mrs. George Tubb of Canadian is visiting at the David Thomas home and attending commencement exercises.

Miss Floyd Holman has returned from Borger where she has been teaching the past year.

Mrs. I. B. Carruth visited at the home of her sister in Floydada this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Golden are here from Portales for commencement.

COTTON KING AGAIN

This is going to be the biggest cotton season since before the war. Every indication confirms this statement. Cotton will be King again, and rule over the entire world of fashion this summer; even Paris is showing cottons in preference to other fabrics now.

For everything from hats to shoes, cotton is now being advocated and used, and most summer wardrobes now bearing the sanction of Dame Fashion utilize cotton to some extent. It is even said that cottons are being used more than silks in the latest styles.

The story of the cotton comeback proves that you can't down a good thing. Experience has proven the wonderful qualities of cotton as material for wearing apparel. It will always be popular, even though it may now and then suffer a temporary eclipse.

Demand for Homes
Near Supply Limit

Houses again are becoming scarce in Canyon, according to figures gathered by Harvey Cash, city secretary, who is in charge of water service. Approximately fifteen houses remain vacant out of the sixty which were reported unoccupied during the winter. Mr. Cash said.

Apartment house owners reported their apartments rented, and several of them were advertising for tenants to occupy the apartments Sept. 1.

These indications were construed as strengthening predictions that a record attendance will be registered at the college for the summer session opening early in June.

CARDS OUT FOR MURRELL-
MONEY WEDDING JUNE 12

Invitations have been sent out announcing the wedding of Miss Elsie Murrell to Charles Pearson Money which will be solemnized June 12th at the First Presbyterian Church in Canyon. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Stella Murrell, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Elsie Money, both prominent families of this community.

SHOWER FOR MISS JOHNSON

Miss Gladys Johnson was honor guest at a shower and slumber party Friday night, given in honor of her approaching marriage on Sunday, June 1, when she will become the bride of Mr. Virgil Norman of this city. The shower was given by "The Jenkins House girls" and a group of her friends, and was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Jenkins. Those present besides the Jenkins house girls were, Misses Vira Norman, Rachel Tidrow, Ruth Johnson and Mary Louise Truett.

MISS ERMA WALKER MARRIES

Word of the marriage of Miss Erma Walker of Panhandle to Mr. Julius T. Billingsley on Wednesday March 20, at Canadian, has been received here. Mrs. Billingsley was employed by Thompson Hardware Company from September 1927 to January 1, 1928, as a stenographer. She left here to accept a position in Panhandle with the Louis Hardware Company, where she was working until the time of her marriage. The young couple will live in Panhandle.

GRUSDORF LEAVES

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Grusendorf left Wednesday for Brenham, Tex., where Mr. Grusendorf will begin his work as president of the Blinn Memorial College. Mr. Grusendorf has been head of the department of sociology and economics at the West Texas State Teachers College for the past year and a member of its faculty for three years. During his residence in Canyon he has been very prominent in the affairs of the Methodist church and has served as superintendent of the Sunday School for more than a year.

ENTERTAINED FRESHMEN

Sunday afternoon Prof. and Mrs. L. F. Shelly were hosts and hostesses at a tea for members of the freshmen class of which Mr. Shelly is sponsor. From four to six o'clock groups of freshmen came and went, and each group furnished its own program of music and conversation. This was the last meeting of the class as a body and a good representation was present.

J. M. Redfean and family.

TAX NOTICE

Owing to the financial condition of the Canyon Independent School District, collection must be made on delinquent taxes amounting to $419 for 1927, and $2421 for 1928. It is ordered by the school board that all delinquencies be advertised in the Canyon News at least three weeks in June. It will be a material saving to take care of this matter before any additional cost accrues.

New Marriage Law Becomes Effective on the 16th of June

The new marriage license law recently passed by the Texas Legislature, which becomes effective on June 16, reads as follows:

Article 4605-A. For the purpose of ascertaining all facts required under the statutes, the county clerk, at the time the license is applied for, shall examine the applicant or applicants for the license under oath as to age and residence, which shall be reduced to writing by the county clerk, and subscribed to by the applicant or applicants. In case either party is absent when application is made an affidavit shall be made by person other than the contracting party as to the age and residence of the absent party. Said affidavit to be filed in the county clerk's office.

Article 4605-B. Application for license shall be made at least three days and not more than 30 days before the license shall be issued, immediately upon receipt of an application of a license, the county clerk shall have recorded in a book kept for the purpose and marked "Notice of Intention to Marry," and after the expiration of three and not more than 30 days after the signing of the notice of intention to marry, the county clerk may issue the said license.

Article 4604-C. Before the county clerk shall issue a marriage license, the man shall produce a certificate from a reputable licensed physician to show that he is free from venereal disease.

She left here to accept a position in Panhandle with the Louis Hardware Company, where she was working until the time of her marriage. The young couple will live in Panhandle.

GRUSENDORF LEAVES

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Grusendorf left Wednesday for Brenham, Tex., where Mr. Grusendorf will begin his work as president of the Blinn Memorial College. Mr. Grusendorf has been head of the department of sociology and economics at the West Texas State Teachers College for the past year and a member of its faculty for three years.

During his residence in Canyon he has been very prominent in the affairs of the Methodist church and has served as superintendent of the Sunday School for more than a year.

ENTERTAINED FRESHMEN

Sunday afternoon Prof. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy were hosts and hostess at a tea for members of the freshmen class of which Mr. Sheffy is sponsor. From four to six o'clock groups of freshmen came and went, and each group furnished its own program of music and conversation. This was the last meeting of the class as a body and a good representation was present.

EQUALIZING TAXES

The commissioners court is in session this week working on the renditions of the tax payers as made to Assessor J. M. Fite.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those many friends who through sympathy and assistance helped so much at the death of our wife and mother, Mrs. R. B. Redfearn. We are especially grateful for the music and the flowers.

R. B. Redfearn.
J. M. Redfearn and family.

TAX NOTICE

Owing to the financial condition of the Canyon Independent School District, collection must be made on delinquent taxes amounting to $419 for 1927, and $2421 for 1928. It is ordered by the school board that all delinquencies be advertised in the Canyon News at least three weeks in June. It will be a material saving to take care of this matter before any additional cost accrues.

D. F. SANDERS, President.
It A. CAYTON, Secretary.
